[No amendment to paragraph .22.]

Compliance With Relevant Ethical Requirements

- .23 Throughout the engagement, the engagement partner should remain alert, through observation and making inquiries as necessary, for evidence of noncompliance with relevant ethical requirements by members of the engagement team. If matters come to the engagement partner's attention through the firm's system of quality control or otherwise that indicate that members of the engagement team have not complied with relevant ethical requirements, the engagement partner, in consultation with others in the firm, should determine the appropriate action. The engagement partner should have an understanding of the relevant ethical requirements, including those related to independence, that are applicable given the nature and circumstances of the engagement. (Ref: par. .A49-.A52)

- .24 The engagement partner should take responsibility for other members of the engagement team having been made aware of relevant ethical requirements that are applicable given the nature and circumstances of the engagement, and the firm's related policies or procedures, including those that address the following: (Ref: par. .A42 and .A50–.A54)
- a. Identifying, evaluating, and addressing threats to compliance with relevant ethical requirements, including those related to independence, if applicable to the circumstances of the engagement
  - b. Circumstances that may cause a breach of relevant ethical requirements, including those related to independence, if applicable to the circumstances of the engagement, and the responsibilities of members of the engagement team when they become aware of breaches
  - c. The responsibilities of members of the engagement team when they become aware of an instance of noncompliance with laws and regulations by the entity
- .25 If matters come to the engagement partner's attention that indicate that a threat to compliance with relevant ethical requirements exists, the engagement partner should evaluate the threats by complying with the firm's policies or procedures, using relevant information from the firm, the engagement team, or other sources; and take appropriate action. (Ref: par. .A53–.A54)
- .26 The engagement partner should remain alert throughout the engagement, through observation and making inquiries as necessary, for breaches of relevant ethical requirements or the firm's related policies or procedures by members of the engagement team. (Ref: par. .A55)
- .27 If matters come to the engagement partner's attention through the firm's system of quality management, or from other sources, that indicate that relevant ethical requirements applicable to the nature and circumstances of the engagement have not been fulfilled, the engagement partner, in consultation with others in the firm, should take appropriate action. (Ref: par. .A56)
- .28 In a compilation or review engagement, prior to dating the accountant's report, the engagement partner should take responsibility for determining whether relevant ethical requirements, including, in a review engagement, those related to independence, have been fulfilled. (Ref: par. .A57)

Monitoring and Remediation

- .2429 ~~An effective system of quality control for a firm includes a monitoring process designed to provide the firm with reasonable assurance that the firm's policies and procedures relating to the system of quality control are relevant, adequate, and operating effectively.~~

~~The engagement partner should consider the results of the firm's monitoring process as evidenced in the latest information circulated by the firm and, if applicable, other network firms, and whether deficiencies noted in that information may affect the engagement.~~

The engagement partner should take responsibility for the following:

- a. Obtaining an understanding of the information from the firm's monitoring and remediation process, as communicated by the firm, including, as applicable, the information from the monitoring and remediation process of the network and across the network firms

- b. Determining the relevance and effect on the engagement of the information referred to in paragraph .29a and taking appropriate action*
- c. Remaining alert throughout the engagement for information that may be relevant to the firm's monitoring and remediation process and communicating such information to those responsible for the process*

Acceptance and Continuance of Client Relationships and Engagements

.2530 The accountant should not accept an engagement to be performed in accordance with SSARSs if (Ref: par. ~~.A48~~A58)

- a. the accountant has reason to believe that relevant ethical requirements, including, if applicable, those related to independence, will not be satisfied; (Ref: par. ~~.A49~~)*
- b. the accountant's preliminary understanding of the engagement circumstances indicates that information needed to perform the engagement is likely to be unavailable or unreliable; or (Ref: par. ~~.A50~~A59)*
- c. the accountant has cause to doubt management's integrity such that it is likely to affect the performance of the engagement.*

[Paragraph .26 is renumbered to paragraph .31. The content is unchanged.]

Application and Other Explanatory Material

[No amendment to paragraphs .A1–.A11.]

"Network" and "Network Firm" (Ref: par. .07)

A12. The definitions of network or network firm in relevant ethical requirements may differ from those set out in this SSARS. The AICPA code also provides guidance in relation to the terms network and network firm. Networks and other network firms may be structured in a variety of ways and are, in all cases, external to the firm. The provisions in this SSARS in relation to networks also apply to any structures or organizations that do not form part of the firm but that exist within the network.

Ethical Requirements (Ref: par. .08)

~~.A17~~<sup>18</sup> QC section 10–Statement on Quality Management Standards No. 1, A Firm's System of Quality Control Management, (SQMS No. 1) sets out the firm's responsibilities to establish and maintain its design, implement, and operate a system of quality control ~~control~~management for engagements performed in accordance with SSARSs. As part of its system of quality management, SQMS No. 1 requires the firm and to establish policies and procedures designed to provide it with reasonable assurance that the firm and its personnel comply quality objectives that address the fulfillment of responsibilities in accordance with relevant ethical requirements, including those pertaining related to independence, if applicable.

Engagement Level Quality Control Management (Ref: par. .20-.21 and .24)

~~.A17~~A41 When considering ~~When considering~~ determining that members of the engagement team have the appropriate competence and capabilities to perform the engagement ~~expected of the engagement team as a whole~~, the engagement partner may take into consideration such matters as the ~~team's~~ member's

- understanding of, and practical experience with, engagements of a similar nature and complexity through appropriate training and participation.
- understanding of professional standards and applicable legal and regulatory requirements.
- technical expertise, including expertise with relevant information technology and specialized areas of accounting or attest services.
- knowledge of relevant industries in which the client entity operates.
- ability to ~~apply~~ exercise professional skepticism, if applicable, and professional judgment.
- understanding of the firm's quality control ~~management~~ management policies ~~and or~~ procedures.

~~.A40~~A42 Within the context of the firm's system of quality control ~~management~~ management, engagement teams have a responsibility to implement ~~quality control~~ the firm's policies or procedures that are applicable to the engagement and ~~provide~~ communicate to the firm with relevant information to ~~enable the functioning of~~ arising from the engagement that is required to be communicated by the firm's policies or procedures to support that part of the firm's system of quality control relating to independence management.

~~.A41~~A43 The actions of the engagement partner and appropriate messages to the other members of the engagement team, in the context of the engagement partner taking overall responsibility for ~~the overall~~ managing and achieving quality ~~on~~ each engagement, emphasize the fact that quality is essential when performing an engagement in accordance with SSARSs and the importance to the quality of the engagement of

- a. performing work that complies with professional standards and regulatory and legal requirements.
- b. complying with the firm's quality control ~~management~~ management policies ~~and or~~ procedures, as applicable.
- c. issuing a report, if applicable, for the engagement that is appropriate in the circumstances.
- d. the engagement team's ability to raise concerns without fear of reprisals.

~~.A42~~A44 Unless information provided by the firm or other parties suggests otherwise Ordinarily, the engagement team is ~~entitled to rely~~ may depend on the firm's system of quality control policies or procedures unless

- the engagement team’s understanding or practical experience indicates that the firm’s policies or procedures will not effectively address the nature and circumstances of the engagement, or
- information provided by the firm or other parties about the effectiveness of such policies or procedures suggests they cannot be relied on (for example, information provided by the firm’s monitoring activities, external inspections, or other relevant sources indicates that the firm’s policies or procedures are not operating effectively).

.A45 For example, the engagement team may ~~rely~~ depend on the firm’s ~~system of quality control management~~ policies and procedures in relation to

- competence and capabilities of personnel through their recruitment and formal training.
- independence through the accumulation and communication of relevant independence information.
- maintenance of client relationships through the firm’s policies or procedures for acceptance and continuance of client relationships and specific engagements systems.
- adherence to regulatory and legal requirements through the firm’s monitoring and remediation process.

When considering the deficiencies identified in the firm’s system of quality control ~~management~~ management that may affect the engagement, the engagement partner may consider ~~measures taken~~ the remedial actions undertaken by the firm to ~~rectify~~ address those deficiencies.

~~.A43~~A46 A deficiency in the firm’s system of quality control ~~management~~ management does not necessarily indicate that an engagement was not performed in accordance with professional standards and applicable legal and regulatory requirements or that the accountant’s report, if applicable, was not appropriate in the circumstances.

Acceptance and Continuance of Client Relationships and Engagements Performed in Accordance With SSARSs (Ref: par. .21d(i))

~~.A45~~A47 QC section 10 SQMS No. 1 requires the firm to obtain information considered necessary in the circumstances before accepting an engagement with a new client, when deciding whether to continue an existing engagement, and when considering acceptance of a new engagement with an existing client establish quality objectives that address acceptance and continuance of client relationships and specific engagements. Information such as the following may assist the engagement partner in determining whether the conclusions reached regarding the acceptance and continuance of client relationships and engagements ~~in accordance with SSARSs~~ are appropriate:

- The integrity and ethical values of the principal owners, key management, and those charged with governance of the entity

- Whether sufficient and appropriate resources are available to perform the engagement
- Whether management and those charged with governance have acknowledged their responsibilities in relation to the engagement
- Whether the engagement team is has the competent competence and capabilities, including sufficient time, to perform the engagement ~~and has the necessary capabilities, including time and resources~~
- ~~Whether the firm and the engagement team can comply with relevant ethical requirements~~
- Whether Significant findings or issues significant matters that have arisen during the current or previous engagement ~~and their relationship~~ have implications for continuing the ~~engagement~~

[Former paragraph .A46 is renumbered as paragraph .A48. The content is unchanged.]

Assignment of Engagement Teams (Ref: par. .21dii)

~~Compliance With Relevant Ethical Requirements (Ref: par. .23-.25)~~

.A49 Based on the nature and circumstances of the engagement, certain law, regulation, or aspects of relevant ethical requirements, such as those pertaining to noncompliance with laws or regulations, may be relevant to the engagement (for example, laws or regulations dealing with money laundering, corruption, or bribery).

.A50 The firm's information system and the resources provided by the firm may assist the engagement team in understanding and fulfilling relevant ethical requirements applicable to the nature and circumstances of the engagement. For example, the firm may do the following:

- Communicate the independence requirements to engagement teams, if applicable in the circumstances of the engagement
- Provide training for engagement teams on relevant ethical requirements
- Establish manuals and guides (that is, intellectual resources) containing the provisions of the relevant ethical requirements and guidance on how they are applied in the nature and circumstances of the firm and its engagements
- Assign personnel to manage and monitor compliance with relevant ethical requirements (for example, SQMS No. 1 requires that the firm obtains, at least annually, a documented confirmation of compliance with the independence requirements from all personnel required by relevant ethical requirements to be independent) or provide consultation on matters related to relevant ethical requirements
- Establish policies or procedures for engagement team members to communicate relevant and reliable information to appropriate parties within the firm or to the engagement partner, such as policies or procedures for engagement teams to
  - communicate information about client engagements and the scope of services, including non-assurance services, to enable the firm to identify threats to independence during the period of the engagement and during the period covered by the subject matter

- communicate circumstances and relationships that may create a threat to independence, so that the firm can evaluate whether such a threat is at an acceptable level and, if it is not, address the threat by eliminating it or reducing it to an acceptable level
- promptly communicate any breaches of the relevant ethical requirements, including those related to independence

.A51 The engagement partner may take into account the information, communication, and resources described in paragraph .A49 when determining whether the engagement partner may depend on the firm’s policies or procedures in complying with relevant ethical requirements.

.A52 Open and robust communication between the members of the engagement team about relevant ethical requirements may also assist in

- drawing the attention of engagement team members to relevant ethical requirements that may be of particular significance to the audit engagement, and
- keeping the engagement partner informed about matters relevant to the engagement team’s understanding and fulfillment of relevant ethical requirements and the firm’s related policies or procedures.

Identifying and Evaluating Threats to Compliance With Relevant Ethical Requirements (Ref: par. .24-.25)

.A53 In accordance with SQMS No. 1, the firm’s responses to address the quality risks in relation to relevant ethical requirements, including those related to independence for engagement team members, include policies or procedures for identifying, evaluating, and addressing threats to compliance with the relevant ethical requirements.

.A54 Relevant ethical requirements may contain provisions regarding the identification and evaluation of threats and how they are to be dealt with. For example, the AICPA code [ET section 1.295.040] provides safeguards for reducing threats to independence to an acceptable level when performing nonattest services for an attest client. Breaches of Relevant Ethical Requirements (Ref: par. .26)

.A55 In accordance with SQMS No. 1, the firm is required to establish policies or procedures for identifying, communicating, evaluating, and reporting any breaches of relevant ethical requirements and appropriately responding to the causes and consequences of the breaches in a timely manner.

Taking Appropriate Action (Ref: par. .27)

.A56 Examples of appropriate actions may include the following:

- Following the firm’s policies or procedures regarding breaches of relevant ethical requirements, including communicating to or consulting with the appropriate individuals so that appropriate action can be taken, including as applicable, disciplinary action.
- Communicating with those charged with governance.

- Communicating with regulatory authorities or professional bodies. In some circumstances, communication with regulatory authorities may be required by law or regulation.
- Seeking legal advice.
- Withdrawing from the engagement, when withdrawal is possible under applicable law or regulation.

Prior to Dating the Accountant's Review Report (Ref: par. .28)

.A57 AR-C section 90 requires that the accountant's review report include a statement that the accountant is required to be independent of the entity and to meet the accountant's other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to the review.<sup>6</sup> Performing the procedures required by paragraphs .23–.28 provide the basis for these statements in the accountant's review report.

Acceptance and Continuance of Client Relationships and Engagements (Ref: par. .25–.26)

~~.A48~~A58 The accountant's consideration of ~~engagement~~acceptance and continuance of client relationships and relevant ethical requirements occurs throughout the engagement as conditions and changes in circumstances occur. Performing initial procedures on ~~engagement~~acceptance and continuance of client relationships and evaluation of relevant ethical requirements at the beginning of an engagement informs the accountant's decisions and actions prior to the performance of other significant activities for the engagement.

~~.A49~~ Relevant ethical requirements with respect to a review engagement include independence.
