• On November 17, 2020, IRS announced that is establishing uniform procedures as required by the 2019 Taxpayer First Act (Pub. L. 116-25) for accepting electronic signatures on IRS Form 2848, Power of Attorney and Declaration of Representative, and IRS Form 8821, Tax Information Authorization. Under the interim procedure, taxpayers will sign the forms, either manually or electronically, and submit them to their professionals. The tax professionals can then use the IRS’s Secure Access authentication tool to verify and upload the form to the IRS online. It said by July 2021, it plans to release a “Tax Pro Account,” which will allow “actual online creation” of the authorization forms, rather than just an online means for uploading already-signed forms.
