REQUIREMENTS	APPLICATION AND OTHER EXPLANATORY MATERIAL
Introduction
Scope of This Proposed SAS	Scope of This Proposed SAS (Ref. par. .01–.09)
.01 This proposed Statement on Auditing Standards (SAS) addresses the auditor’s responsibility to form an opinion and report on the audit of financial statements of employee benefit plans subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), hereinafter referred to as ERISA plans, including reporting on specific plan provisions relating to the financial statements in accordance with paragraphs .120–.125. It also addresses the form and content of the auditor’s report issued as a result of an audit of ERISA plan financial statements. The proposed SAS applies to single employer, multiple employer, and multiemployer plans. (Ref. par. .A1) .02 The requirements in this proposed SAS are specific to ERISA plan engagements and are intended to be performed as part of the audit of ERISA plan financial statements in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards (GAAS); however, the requirements in this proposed SAS do not contain all the procedures necessary to provide an opinion on the ERISA plan financial statements. .03 The Department of Labor (DOL), Internal Revenue Service (IRS), and the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation (PBGC) jointly developed the Form 5500 Series so employee benefit plans could utilize the Form 5500 Series forms to satisfy annual reporting requirements under Title I and Title IV of ERISA and under the Internal Revenue Code (IRC). The Form 5500 series is an important compliance, research, and disclosure tool for the DOL, a disclosure document for plan participants and beneficiaries, and a source of information and data for use by other Federal agencies, Congress, and the private sector in assessing employee benefit, tax, and economic trends and policies. The Form 5500 Series is part of ERISA's overall reporting and	.A1 The AICPA Audit and Accounting Guide Employee Benefit Plans provides interpretive guidance to apply this proposed SAS. AU-C section 200 requires the auditor to consider applicable interpretive publications in planning and performing the audit.<sup>1</sup> .A2 ERISA provides for federal government oversight of management’s operating and reporting practices for employee benefit plans. In addition to establishing reporting requirements for covered plans, ERISA establishes minimum standards for participation, vesting, and funding for defined benefit and defined contribution plans sponsored by private entities. It also establishes standards of fiduciary conduct and imposes specific restrictions and responsibilities on fiduciaries. .A3 The plan administrator is identified in the plan document as having responsibility for managing the day-to-day administration and decisions for the plan. This proposed SAS uses the term “management” to refer to the plan administrator in the DOL’s Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure Under ERISA. .A4 Under ERISA, the DOL and IRS have the authority to issue regulations governing the administration of employee benefit plans, including reporting and disclosure requirements to be included in an annual filing with the DOL. The DOL does not establish the financial reporting framework; for example the DOL does not set generally accepted accounting principles for employee benefit plan financial statements. The selection of an acceptable financial reporting framework is the responsibility of management. The PBGC guarantees participants in most defined benefit pension plans certain minimum pension benefits if the plan terminates, and it administers terminated plans in certain circumstances. The IRS, DOL, and PBGC have consolidated their

REQUIREMENTS	APPLICATION AND OTHER EXPLANATORY MATERIAL
disclosure framework, which is intended to assure that employee benefit plans are operated and managed in accordance with certain prescribed standards and that participants and beneficiaries, as well as regulators, are provided or have access to sufficient information to protect the rights and benefits of participants and beneficiaries under employee benefit plans. (Ref. par. .A2–.A5)	reporting and disclosure requirements into the Form 5500 to minimize the filing burden for plan management.
	.A5 ERISA contains a requirement for annual audits of employee benefit plan financial statements by an independent qualified public accountant. Generally, plans with 100 or more participants (as defined in the Form 5500, Annual Return/Report for Employee Benefit Plan, instructions) are subject to the audit requirement. ERISA and DOL regulations require additional information to be disclosed in the financial statements or presented in the supplemental schedules. ERISA also contains a requirement for the auditor to report on whether certain supplemental schedules, as identified in ERISA section 103, are presented fairly, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole.
.04 AU-C sections 200–700 apply to an audit of financial statements. Except for the following AU-C sections, or portions thereof, all of the other AU-C sections are applicable to an audit of ERISA plan financial statements. (Ref. par. .A6) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. AU-C section 700, Forming an Opinion and Reporting on Financial Statements</li> <li>b. Paragraph .09 of AU-C section 725, Supplementary Information in Relation to the Financial Statements as a Whole</li> </ul> .05 The AU-C sections, or portions thereof, identified in paragraph .04(a) and .04a.04b) are not applicable to an ERISA plan engagement because the subject matter is specifically covered in this proposed SAS. In addition, this proposed SAS contains incremental requirements to AU-C section 210, Terms of Engagement, and AU-C section 580, Written Representations. AU-C sections 800–940 also apply when applicable.	.A6 AU-C section 700 does not apply to audits of ERISA plan financial statements. When paragraph .04 specifies individual requirement paragraphs rather than an entire AU-C section, the application and other explanatory material paragraphs related to such requirement paragraphs also do not apply.

REQUIREMENTS	APPLICATION AND OTHER EXPLANATORY MATERIAL
.06 This proposed SAS also addresses the auditor’s responsibilities for forming an opinion and reporting on ERISA plan financial statements, including the form and content of the report when management imposes a limitation on the scope of the audit in accordance with ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C).
.07 When the ERISA-permitted limitation on the scope of the audit is imposed, as discussed in paragraph .06, the audit need not extend to any statement or information prepared and certified by a bank or similar institution or an insurance carrier which is regulated, supervised, and subject to periodic examination by a State or Federal agency (referred to as a qualified institution), provided that the statements or information regarding assets so held are prepared and certified to by the bank or insurance carrier in accordance with Title 29 U.S. Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) Part 2520.103-5 and CFR 2520.103-8. (Ref. par. .A7–.A11)	.A7 A qualified institution is an organization as defined in accordance with 29 CFR 2520.103-5 and 29 CFR 2520.103-8 as a bank or similar institution or an insurance carrier that is regulated, supervised, and subject to periodic examination by a State or Federal agency that prepares and certifies the information related to assets held for investment of the plan (hereinafter referred to as “investment information”). Title 29 CFR Part 2520.103-1 outlines the DOL’s rules and regulations for reporting and disclosure under ERISA. Investment companies and broker dealers are not considered qualified institutions as it relates to providing a certification.
	.A8 Further, this limitation on the scope of the audit is available to management only when the qualified institution certifies both the accuracy and completeness of the investment information submitted to the plan administrator. Certifications that address only accuracy or only completeness, but not both, do not comply with the DOL’s regulation and, therefore, are not adequate to allow plan management to limit the scope of the audit. Moreover, this scope limitation does not exempt the plan from the requirement to have an audit.
	.A9 This management-imposed limitation on the scope of the audit and corresponding limitation on the auditor’s work does not extend to areas such as participant data, participant account balances and related earnings allocations, contributions, benefit payments, or other information, regardless of whether such information is included in the certified statement or information. Further, the limitation on the auditor’s work does not extend to the presentation of the investment disclosures in the notes to the financial statements.

	.A10 The plan administrator may also limit the scope of the audit of the plan’s investment in a 103-12 entity, as permitted by 29 CFR 2520.103-12, provided the 103-12 investment entity properly filed its report with the DOL. Such limitation on the scope of the audit is similar to that permitted by 29 CFR 2520.103-5 and therefore the guidance in this proposed SAS is applicable, however the wording in the auditor’s report may need to be revised to fit the circumstances of the engagement.
	.A11 Sometimes, the plan’s recordkeeper certifies the investment information on behalf of the plan’s qualified institution as “agent for.” In this situation, such certification generally would be acceptable when there is a contractual arrangement between the qualified institution and the recordkeeper such that the recordkeeper is able to provide the certification on the qualified institution’s behalf.
.08 Reference to financial statements of ERISA plans in this proposed SAS means a complete set of general purpose financial statements <sup>2</sup> for an employee benefit plan subject to ERISA, including the related notes. The related notes ordinarily comprise a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information. The requirements of the applicable financial reporting framework determine the form and content of the financial statements and what constitutes a complete set of financial statements.
.09 AU-C section 705, Modifications to the Opinion in the Independent Auditor’s Report , and AU-C section 706, Emphasis-of-Matter Paragraphs and Other-Matter Paragraphs in the Independent Auditor’s Report , address how the form and content of the auditor’s report are affected when the auditor expresses a modified opinion (a qualified opinion, an adverse opinion, or a disclaimer of opinion) or

includes an emphasis-of-matter paragraph or other-matter paragraph in the auditor’s report. As discussed in paragraph .35, when there are other limitations on the scope of the audit, beyond what is permitted by ERISA section 103(a)(C), or when the auditor has identified material misstatements of the financial statements of the ERISA plan, the auditor should modify the auditor’s opinion in accordance with AU-C section 705. (Ref. par. .A68)
Effective Date
.10 This proposed SAS is effective for audits of financial statements of ERISA plans for periods ending on or after December 15, 20XX.
Objectives
.11 The objectives of the auditor are to
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Appropriately plan and perform the audit of ERISA plan financial statements in accordance with AU-C sections 200-700, as applicable (except as discussed in paragraph .04), including (Ref. par. .A5.A2) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>i. The acceptance of an ERISA plan engagement, and</li> <li>ii. c. Express clearly that opinion on the ERISA plan financial statements through a written report that also describes the basis for that opinion and includes a report on specific plan provisions relating to the financial statements. d. Evaluate the presentation of the supplementary information in relation to the financial statements as a whole, and report on whether the supplementary information is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole, in accordance with AU-C section 725, except as discussed in paragraph .04.

Definitions
.12 For purposes of this proposed SAS, the following term has the meaning attributed as follows:
Findings. Matters identified, as a result of the obtaining sufficient appropriate audit evidence relating to the requirements in paragraphs .16–.17, when the audit work performed results in items that are not in accordance with the criteria specified in the audit step (for example, not in accordance with the plan document).

Considerations When Forming an Opinion and Reporting on ERISA Plan Financial Statements

Considerations When Forming an Opinion and Reporting on ERISA Plan Financial Statements

Engagement Acceptance

Engagement Acceptance (Ref. par. .13)

.13 In addition to the requirements in AU-C section 210 the auditor should obtain the agreement of management that it acknowledges and understands its responsibility for (Ref. par. .A12)

- a. maintaining a plan document or its equivalent, including all plan amendments (Ref. par. .A13)
- b. administering the plan and determining that the plan’s transactions that are presented and disclosed in the financial statements are in conformity with the plan’s provisions
- c. maintaining sufficient records with respect to each of the participants in accordance with ERISA section 107 and 209 to determine the benefits due or which may become due to such participants
- d. When the ERISA-permitted audit scope limitation is imposed:
  - i. Determining whether a limitation on the scope of the audit is permissible in the circumstances, in accordance with ERISA
  - ii. Evaluating whether the certification is prepared by a qualified institution
  - iii. Evaluating whether the certified information is complete and accurate
  - iv. Determining whether the certified investment information is appropriately measured, presented, and disclosed in accordance with the applicable financial reporting framework.

.A12 The concept of an independent audit requires that the auditor not assume management’s responsibility for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements. When the auditor assists in drafting the financial statements, in whole or in part, based on information provided by management during the performance of the audit, such assistance is considered a nonattest service under the “Nonattest Services” subtopic (AICPA, Professional Standards, ET sec 1.295) under the “Independence Rule” (AICPA, Professional Standards, ET sec. 1.200.001) of the AICPA Code of Professional Conduct. Before performing nonattest services, the auditor is required to establish and document in writing the auditor’s understanding with the client regarding the objectives of the engagement, services to be performed, client’s acceptance of its responsibilities, auditor’s responsibilities, and any limitations of the engagement.

.14 The auditor should also obtain the agreement of management or those charged with governance to provide the Form 5500 prior to the report release date. If it is not possible to obtain the Form 5500 prior to the report release date, the auditor should perform the procedures in paragraph .38.

Highlighted Procedures for Audits of ERISA Plan Financial Statements

.15 Because the plan document is essential to understanding the plan and identifying and testing the relevant assertions relating to the topics included in paragraphs .16–.17, the auditor should obtain and review the most recent plan document, or its equivalent, including all effective amendments (hereinafter referred to as the plan document), as part of obtaining an understanding sufficient to perform risk assessment. (Ref. par. .A13)

.16 Irrespective of the risk of material misstatement, the auditor should perform substantive procedures to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence about the following, (Ref. par. .A14–.A17)

Highlighted Procedures for Audits of ERISA Plan Financial Statements (Ref. par. .15–.20)

.A13 An employee benefit plan is established and maintained by the plan sponsor pursuant to a written plan instrument, called the plan document. ERISA section 402 requires employee benefit plans be established and maintained pursuant to a written instrument. Defined benefit pension plans and defined contribution pension plans generally have a plan document. Health and welfare plans may have multiple documents that comprise the plan document. Examples include all Summary Plan Descriptions, possibly, the Employee Handbook, the applicable section of a Collective Bargaining Agreement, and when applicable, cost-summary sheets provided to participants. The terms of the plan document generally deal with matters such as eligibility of participants, entitlement to benefits, funding, plan amendments, operation and administration of plan provisions, identification of the plan’s fiduciary, allocation of responsibilities among those who serve in a capacity as a fiduciary, and delegation of fiduciary duties in connection with the administration of the plan. Among other requirements, for a plan to be qualified, the plan instrument must be in writing and communicated to employees.

.A14 AU-C section 300, Planning an Audit requires the auditor to establish an overall audit strategy that sets the scope, timing, and direction of the audit and that guides the development of the audit plan.<sup>4</sup> Planning the nature, timing, and extent of further audit procedures depends on the outcome of the auditor’s risk assessment procedures. AU-C section 330, requires the auditor to design and perform further audit procedures whose nature, timing, and extent are based on, and are

	responsive to, the assessed risks of material misstatement at the relevant assertion level. .A15 Paragraphs .16–.17 require the auditor to perform audit procedures to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence relating to the areas listed as part of the audit of the ERISA plan financial statements, and are the basis for reporting on specific plan provisions relating to the financial statements as required in paragraphs .120–.125 of this proposed SAS. This does not include all audit procedures that are necessary for the auditor to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence to opine on the ERISA plan financial statements. The AICPA Audit and Accounting Guide Employee Benefit Plans provides interpretive guidance for auditing ERISA plans, including example audit procedures. .A16 The auditor’s risk assessment may affect the extent of testing of the plan’s transactions and whether they are in accordance with specific plan provisions relating to the financial statements; however, paragraphs .16–.17 of this proposed SAS requires the auditor to perform audit procedures, therefore the auditor’s risk assessment may reduce, but not eliminate the testing of these areas. .A17 Some of these procedures may be performed in conjunction with the testing of relevant areas of the financial statements, such as when testing contributions and participant data. The extent of testing is based on the auditor’s professional judgment. However, each area is expected to have some relevant testing.
a. whether eligibility provisions are being administered in accordance with the plan document (Ref. par. .A18–.A19)	.A18 The plan document or collective bargaining agreement often specifies the eligibility provisions (in accordance with ERISA sections 201 and 202) that must be met for the employer(s) and employees to make contributions, vesting provisions, the formula to determine upper and lower contribution limits (salary deferral percentages), or the rates for determining the contributions. Relevant assertions relating to eligibility include <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Completeness and accuracy of contribution transactions</li> <li>• Occurrence</li> <li>• Rights and obligations</li> </ul>

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Presentation and disclosure</li> </ul> .A19 Eligibility provisions are often tested as part of the auditor’s testing of contributions and participant data.
b. whether benefit payments or claim payments are complete and accurate and are being administered in accordance with the plan document (Ref. par. .A20–.A21)	.A20 The plan document (or summary plan descriptions) often specifies benefit or claim payment provisions in accordance with ERISA sections 204–206 under which benefits and claims can be paid. Relevant assertions relating to benefit or claim payments include <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Accuracy of benefit or claims payments</li> <li>• Completeness of benefit or claims payments</li> <li>• Occurrence</li> <li>• Rights and obligations</li> <li>• Presentation and disclosure</li> </ul> .A21 Benefit payment testing often includes whether benefit payments were made when required or permitted and in accordance with the applicable formula or amount.
c. whether vesting provisions are being administered in accordance with the plan document (Ref. par. .A22–.A23)	.A22 Minimum vesting requirements are typically summarized in the plan document in accordance with ERISA section 203. Relevant assertions relating to vesting provisions include <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Accuracy of benefit or claims payments</li> <li>• Completeness of benefit or claims payments,</li> <li>• Occurrence</li> <li>• Rights and obligations</li> <li>• Presentation and disclosure</li> </ul> .A23 Vesting provisions and census data are often tested as part of benefit payment testing or participant data testing.
d. whether employer and employee contributions are calculated in accordance with the plan document, including that compensation upon which contributions are based is administered consistent with the definition of compensation in the plan document. (Ref. par. .A24–.A25)	.A24 Relevant assertions relating to employer and employee contributions include <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Accuracy of contributions</li> <li>• Completeness of contributions</li> <li>• Occurrence</li> <li>• Rights and obligations</li> </ul>

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Presentation and disclosure</li> </ul> .A25 Employer and employee contribution testing often includes testing that proper compensation was used when calculating contributions by coordinating the procedures for testing contributions with those for payroll and participant data.
e. whether identified prohibited transactions have been appropriately reported in the supplemental schedules (Ref. par. .A26–.A27)	.A26 Relevant assertions relating to identified prohibited transactions include presentation and disclosure of contributions and accruals. .A27 Testing identified prohibited transactions often includes evaluating whether identified prohibited transactions have been appropriately presented in the supplemental schedules as required by ERISA.
f. when applicable, whether expenses have been allocated in accordance with an allocation formula consistent with applicable DOL class or individual exemptions. (Ref. par. .A28–.A30)	.A28 Expense allocation in accordance with an allocation formula as discussed in paragraph .16(f) mainly occurs in multiemployer plans or plans with master trusts or similar arrangements. .A29 Relevant assertions relating to expense allocation includes <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Accuracy of expenses</li> <li>• Completeness of expenses</li> <li>• Allocation</li> <li>• Presentation and disclosure</li> </ul> .A30 Testing whether expenses have been allocated properly often includes evaluating whether the allocation formula is appropriate in the circumstances.
g. whether assets are fully allocated to the participant accounts in accordance with IRS Revenue Ruling 80-155 and the plan document. (Ref. par. .A31–.A33)	.A31 Assets are fully allocated to participant accounts when the plan is an individual account plan. In accordance with ERISA section 3(34), an individual account plan means a pension plan that provides for an individual account for each participant and for benefits based solely upon the amount contributed to the participant’s account, and any income, expenses, gains and losses, and any forfeitures of accounts of other participants may be allocated to such participant’s account. .A32 IRS Revenue Ruling 80-155 interprets Treasury Regulation 1.401-1(b)1(ii). Relevant assertions relating to allocation of participant accounts include

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Valuation and Allocation (period-end account balances)</li> <li>• Occurrence</li> <li>• Rights and obligations</li> <li>• Presentation and disclosure</li> </ul> .A33 Testing whether assets are fully allocated to the participant accounts often includes reconciling the aggregate of participant accounts to the net assets available for benefits.
h. whether the forfeited nonvested portion of the participants’ accounts (forfeitures) were used in accordance with the plan document. (Ref. par. .A34–.A35)	.A34 Forfeitures occur in individual account plans, as defined in paragraph .A31. IRS Revenue Ruling 84-156 states that forfeitures may be used to pay for a plan’s administrative expenses or reduce employer contributions. Treasury regulation 1.401-7(a) requires a plan to use forfeitures as soon as possible. Relevant assertions relating to the use of forfeitures includes <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Accuracy of contributions, benefit payments, expenses</li> <li>• Completeness of contributions, benefit payments, expenses</li> <li>• Occurrence</li> <li>• Rights and obligations</li> <li>• Presentation and disclosure</li> </ul> .A35 Testing whether forfeitures have been used properly is often performed as part of forfeiture testing, including (a) identifying whether forfeitures are recorded and exist, and (b) evaluating whether the plan used the forfeitures in accordance with the plan document.
i. whether account activity, including employee and employer contributions, distributions, loans, transfers and other deductions or additions have been properly allocated to participants and beneficiaries (active and inactive or terminated) in accordance with the plan document. (Ref. par. .A36)	.A36 Account activity is allocated to participant and beneficiaries when you have an individual account plan as defined in paragraph .A31. Relevant assertions relating to allocation of account activity includes <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Valuation and allocation of net asset balance</li> <li>• Occurrence</li> <li>• Rights and obligations</li> </ul>

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Presentation and disclosure</li> </ul>
.17 The auditor should also perform audit procedures to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence about whether a. the plan has performed and passed, corrected, or intends to correct failures of relevant IRC compliance tests within the time provided by the regulations. (Ref. par. .A37–.A41)	.A37 Certain plan types are granted special tax status for the contributions and earnings on plan investments to be exempt from taxation. Plans must be designed and operated in accordance with IRC requirements in order to maintain their tax-exempt status. Relevant assertions relating to a plan’s tax exempt or qualified status are related to contributions and receivables, and include <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Occurrence</li> <li>• Rights and obligations</li> <li>• Presentation and disclosure</li> </ul> .A38 For qualified retirement plans, these are the provisions of IRC Section 401(a) and related IRC sections. A 403(b) plan is subject to some, but not all, of the same standards as a qualified retirement plan. A tax-exempt welfare benefit plan is subject to the specific requirements of the IRC section that is the basis of their exemption: IRC Section 501(c)(9) for voluntary employee beneficiary associations (VEBAs), IRC Section 501(c)(17) for supplemental unemployment benefits, and IRC Section 501(c)(21) for black lung benefits. .A39 To determine that a plan is operating within the specific guidelines established by the plan document in accordance with the IRC, the plan administrator is responsible for conducting certain nondiscrimination and other compliance tests which are required to be performed at least annually, unless otherwise provided by the IRC. .A40 The auditor’s testing of whether the plan has performed and passed, corrected, or intend to correct failures of relevant IRC compliance tests is often performed through inquiry and observation. .A41 Exhibit B— Nondiscrimination and Other Operating Tests for Plan Qualification includes a list of IRC requirements with which a plan is required to comply in order to maintain its tax exempt status. This list contains the IRC compliance tests contemplated by paragraph .17(a) when reporting on selected plan provisions relating to the financial statements in this proposed SAS. This list is not all inclusive; however, the auditor would not be required to report on selected plan provisions relating to the financial statements with

	other IRC compliance tests, other than those listed in exhibit B.
b. for individual account plans, whether income, expenses, and fees have been administered in accordance with the plan document. (Ref. par. .A42)	.A42 Testing of income, expenses or fees, is often performed using analytical procedures, tests of controls, or a combination of both.
.18 Documentation and findings. The auditor should document the audit procedures performed and all the findings accumulated during the audit relating to paragraphs .16–.17 and how the objective of such procedures was achieved. (Ref. par..A43)	.A43 Because this proposed SAS requires the auditor to report on the findings from the audit work performed relating to the topics in paragraphs .16–.17, paragraph .18 requires the auditor to document all findings relating to paragraph .16–.17, not just those that are considered significant findings, as defined in AU-C section 230, Audit Documentation .
.19 When the auditor has findings from the audit work performed relating to the requirements in paragraph .16–.17, the auditor should evaluate the possible effect on the financial statements, individually and in the aggregate, and consider the need to modify the nature, timing, or extent of other planned audit procedures. Further, the auditor should consider whether the findings relate to deficiencies in internal control in accordance with AU-C section 265. Paragraph .122 requires the auditor to include findings in the Report on Specific Plan Provisions Relating to the Financial Statements , other than when those matters are clearly inconsequential. (Ref. par. .A44–.A45)	.A44 Besides the potential financial consequences findings may have on the ERISA plan financial statements, the findings may result in the imposition of fines or penalties (to the plan sponsor, trustees, or other fiduciaries) and possible loss of tax exempt status to the plan. For example <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• failure to remit participant contributions in a timely manner results in a prohibited transaction that is required to be reported separately to the DOL and may result in penalties to the plan sponsor</li> <li>• the use of an incorrect definition of eligible compensation can affect the employer or employee contribution amounts and could be indicative of a systemic problem which has a material effect in the aggregate.</li> </ul> .A45 When the auditor has findings from the audit work performed relating to the requirements in paragraphs .16–.17, the findings may relate to deficiencies in internal control. AU-C section 265 addresses the auditor’s responsibilities to appropriately communicate with those charged with governance and management deficiencies in internal control that the auditor had identified in the audit of the financial statements.
.20 If the auditor concludes that the findings have a material effect on the financial statements that requires revision of the financial statements, the	.A46 The requirements of AU-C section 250, Consideration of Laws and Regulations in an Audit of Financial Statements are designed to assist the auditor

Accordingly, depending upon the nature and significance of the findings, the requirements in AU-C section 250 may also need to be considered in relation to the findings.

Procedures When ERISA-Permitted Scope Limitation is Imposed	Procedures When ERISA-Permitted Scope Limitation is Imposed
.21 When management imposes an ERISA-permitted scope limitation on the audit, the auditor should perform audit procedures to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence on the information not covered by the certification, including noninvestment-related information and investment information not covered by the certification. Plans may hold investments, only a portion of which are covered by a certification by a qualified institution. In that case, the auditor should perform auditing procedures on the investment information that have not been properly certified. The auditor should also perform the following procedures on the certified investment information (Ref. par. .A47–.A48)	.A47 Performing an audit of financial statements of an ERISA plan when management imposes a limitation on the scope of the audit as permitted by ERISA does not eliminate the need for the auditor to plan and perform the audit in accordance with GAAS. Such limitation on the scope of the audit is unique to employee benefit plans and differs from the scope limitations discussed in AU-C section 705. Unlike other scope limitations, when the scope of the audit is limited, as permitted by ERISA, the auditor is required to perform certain audit procedures on the certified investment information even though the scope of the audit is limited. .A48 The need to perform audit procedures related to all noninvestment-related information (for example, benefit payments, employer or employee contributions, and receivables) is the same for all ERISA plans, regardless of whether management imposes an ERISA-permitted scope limitation.
a. obtain from management and read the certification particularly as it relates to investment related information prepared by a qualified institution; (Ref. par. .A49–.A50)	.A49 The qualified institution may certify all activity of the plan. As discussed in paragraph .A9, the ERISA-permitted scope limitation, and corresponding required procedures in paragraph .21 extend only to investment information certified by the qualified institution. The auditor is required to perform audit procedures to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence on the noninvestment related information and the investment information not covered by the certification in order to form an opinion on the ERISA plan financial statements. .A50 Although the certification provides necessary audit evidence, it complements other auditing procedures and does not provide sufficient appropriate audit evidence on its own but rather is considered part of audit evidence relating to the certified investment information when determining whether to use the form of opinion required by paragraph .34.

b. evaluate management’s assessment of whether the entity issuing the certification is a qualified institution under DOL rules and regulations;
c. compare the certified investment information with the related information included in the financial statements and related disclosures; (Ref. par. .A51)	.A51 Agreeing or reconciling the certified investment information to the amounts included in the financial statements of the ERISA plan and related investment disclosures also includes the investment information included in the ERISA supplemental schedules. To the extent that such investment information cannot be agreed to or derived from the certified information, appropriate audit procedures would need to be performed on such information.
d. evaluate whether the form and content of the financial statement disclosures related to the information prepared and certified by a qualified institution are in accordance with the applicable financial reporting framework. (Ref. par. .A52– .A53)	.A52 When management limits the scope of the audit as permitted by ERISA, the auditor has no responsibility to test the accuracy or completeness of the investment information certified by the qualified institution. However the auditor may need to understand the types of investments held by the plan to evaluate whether the form and content of the ERISA plan’s financial statement disclosures for those investments are in accordance with the applicable financial reporting framework.
	.A53 The following are examples of procedures that may help the auditor evaluate whether the financial statement disclosures for the ERISA plan are appropriate in the circumstances: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Obtain an understanding, through inquiry and inspection of supporting documentation, of the types of investments held by the ERISA plan and the methodology for measuring those investments</li> <li>b. Inquire whether the investments included in the certification are measured, presented and disclosed in accordance with the applicable financial reporting framework as of the appropriate date.</li> <li>c. Inquire of management about how investments at fair value are leveled in the fair value hierarchy table</li> </ul>

	d. Consider the appropriateness of the classification of investments by the trustee in the financial statements.
.22 If, as part of the audit work performed, the auditor becomes aware that the certified investment information is incomplete, inaccurate, or otherwise unsatisfactory, the auditor should perform further inquiry, which might result in additional audit procedures or modification to the auditor’s opinion in accordance with AU-C section 705.

Written Representations	Written Representations (Ref. par. .23)
.23 In addition to the requirements in AU-C section 580 in an audit of financial statements of ERISA plans, the auditor should request the following written representations (Ref. par. .A54)	.A54 Chapter 10 of the AICPA Audit and Accounting Guide Employee Benefit Plans provides interpretative guidance on representations that may be appropriate when auditing ERISA plan financial statements. AU-C section 725 requires specific written representations from management. <sup>5</sup>
a. Whether management has provided the auditor with the most current plan document (or its equivalent), including all plan amendments
b. Acknowledgement of responsibility for administering the plan and determining that the plan’s transactions that are presented and disclosed in the financial statements are in conformity with the plan’s provisions, including maintaining sufficient records with respect to each of the participants, in accordance with ERISA sections 107 and 209, to determine the benefits due or which may become due to such participants. (Ref. par. .A55)	.A55 Administering the plan is covered by ERISA sections 401-404 which establishes responsibilities and imposes restrictions on plan fiduciaries. ERISA section 209 (29 USC 1027 Retention of Records ) requires the maintenance of records by employers relating to individual benefit reporting. ERISA section 107 (29 USC 1059 Recordkeeping and Reporting Requirements ) provides general record retention requirements for employee benefit plans. ERISA requires that records be maintained in sufficient detail to permit the benefits to be properly calculated and paid when due.
c. When the Report on Specific Plan Provisions Relating to the Financial Statements is not presented with the audited financial statements, as discussed in paragraph .121, that management will make the audited

Forming an Opinion on the ERISA Plan Financial Statements	Forming an Opinion on the ERISA Plan Financial Statements
.24 The auditor should form an opinion on whether the financial statements are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with the applicable financial reporting framework.
.25 In order to form that opinion, the auditor should conclude whether the auditor has obtained reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error. That conclusion should take into account the following: a. The auditor’s conclusion, in accordance with AU-C section 330, Performing Audit Procedures in Response to Assessed Risks

and Evaluating the Audit Evidence Obtained, about whether sufficient appropriate audit evidence has been obtained<sup>6</sup> b. The auditor’s conclusion, in accordance with AU-C section 450, Evaluation of Misstatements Identified During the Audit, about whether uncorrected misstatements are material, individually or in aggregate<sup>7</sup> c. The evaluations required by paragraphs .26–.29 of this proposed SAS
.26 The auditor should evaluate whether the financial statements are prepared, in all material respects, in accordance with the requirements of the applicable financial reporting framework. This evaluation should include consideration of the qualitative aspects of the entity’s accounting practices, including indicators of possible bias in management’s judgments. (Ref: par. .A56–.A58)	Qualitative Aspects of the Entity’s Accounting Practices (Ref. par. .26) .A56 Management makes a number of judgments about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. .A57 AU-C Section 260, The Auditor’s Communication With Those Charged With Governance, contains a discussion of the qualitative aspects of accounting practices.<sup>8</sup> In considering the qualitative aspects of the plan’s accounting practices, the auditor may become aware of possible bias in management’s judgments. The auditor may conclude that the cumulative effect of a lack of neutrality, together with the effect of uncorrected misstatements, causes the financial statements as a whole to be materially misstated. Indicators of a lack of neutrality that may affect the auditor’s evaluation of whether the financial statements as a whole are materially misstated include the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The selective correction of misstatements brought to management’s attention during the audit</li> <li>• Possible management bias in the making of accounting estimates</li> </ul> .A58 AU-C Section 540, Auditing Accounting Estimates, Including Fair Value Accounting Estimates, and Related Disclosures, addresses possible management bias in making accounting estimates.

	Indicators of possible management bias, themselves, do not constitute misstatements for purposes of drawing conclusions on the reasonableness of individual accounting estimates. They may, however, affect the auditor’s evaluation of whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement.
	Disclosure of the Effect of Material Transactions and Events on the Information Conveyed in the Financial Statements (Ref. par. .27)
.27 In particular, the auditor should evaluate whether, in view of the requirements of the applicable financial reporting framework <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. the financial statements adequately disclose the significant accounting policies selected and applied;</li> <li>b. the accounting policies selected and applied are consistent with the applicable financial reporting framework and are appropriate;</li> <li>c. the accounting estimates made by management are reasonable;</li> <li>d. the information presented in the financial statements is relevant, reliable, comparable, and understandable;</li> <li>e. the financial statements provide adequate disclosures to enable the intended users to understand the effect of material transactions and events on the information conveyed in the financial statements; and (Ref: par. .A59)</li> <li>f. the terminology used in the financial statements, including the title of each financial statement, is appropriate.</li> </ol>	.A59 It is common for ERISA plan financial statements prepared in accordance with a general purpose framework to present a plan’s net assets available for benefits and changes in net assets available for benefits. For defined benefit pension plans, the financial statements may also present accumulated plan benefits and changes in accumulated plan benefits. For defined benefit health and welfare plans, the financial statements also present plan benefit obligations and changes in plan benefit obligations. In such circumstances, paragraph .27e requires the auditor to evaluate whether the financial statements provide adequate disclosures to enable the intended users to understand the effect of material transactions and events on the plan’s net assets available for benefits, changes in net assets available for benefits, and for defined benefit pension plans, accumulated plan benefits and changes in accumulated plan benefits, and for defined benefit health and welfare plans, plan benefit obligations and changes in plan benefit obligations.
	Evaluation of Whether the Financial Statements Achieve Fair Presentation (Ref. par. .28)
.28 The auditor’s evaluation about whether the financial statements achieve fair presentation should also include consideration of the following: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. The overall presentation, structure, and content of the financial statements</li> </ol>	.A60 As described in AU-C section 200, Overall Objectives of the Independent Auditor and the Conduct of an Audit in Accordance With Generally Accepted Auditing Standards, a financial reporting framework is a set of criteria used to determine measurement, recognition, presentation, and disclosure of all material items appearing in the financial statements. The

b. Whether the financial statements, including the related notes, represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation (Ref: par. .A60)	auditor’s professional judgment concerning the fairness of the presentation of the financial statements is applied within the context of the financial reporting framework. Without that framework, the auditor would have no consistent standard for evaluating the presentation of the net assets available for benefits (and for accumulated plan benefits for defined benefit pension plans), and changes in net assets available for benefits (and for accumulated plan benefits for defined benefit pension plans) in the financial statements.
	Description of the Applicable Financial Reporting Framework (Ref. par. .29)
.29 The auditor should evaluate whether the financial statements adequately refer to or describe the applicable financial reporting framework. (Ref: par. .A61–.A64)	.A61 As explained in AU-C section 200, the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements by management and, when appropriate, those charged with governance requires the inclusion of an adequate description of the applicable financial reporting framework in the financial statements.<sup>9</sup> That description is important because it advises users of the financial statements of the framework on which the financial statements are based. .A62 A description that the financial statements are prepared in accordance with a particular applicable financial reporting framework is appropriate only if the financial statements comply with all the requirements of that framework that are effective during the period covered by the financial statements. .A63 A description of the applicable financial reporting framework that contains imprecise qualifying or limiting language (for example, "the financial statements are in substantial compliance with Accounting Standards Generally Accepted in the United States of America") is not an adequate description of that framework because it may mislead users of the financial statements. .A64 Financial statements that are prepared in accordance with one financial reporting framework and that contain a note or supplementary statement reconciling the results to those that would be shown under another framework are not prepared in accordance with that other framework. This is because the financial statements do not include all the information in the manner required by that other framework. The financial statements may, however, be

	prepared in accordance with one applicable financial reporting framework and, in addition, describe in the notes to the financial statements the extent to which the financial statements comply with another framework. Such information may not be required by the applicable financial reporting framework but may be presented as part of the basic financial statements. As discussed in paragraph .A145, such information is considered an integral part of the financial statements if it cannot be clearly differentiated and, accordingly, is covered by the auditor’s opinion.

Form of Opinion	Form of Opinion (Ref. par. .30–.36)
.30 The auditor should express an unmodified opinion when the auditor concludes that the financial statements are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with the applicable financial reporting framework.
.31 When the ERISA-permitted scope limitation is imposed by management, and there are no other limitations on the scope of the audit and no identified material misstatements of the financial statements exist, then the auditor’s report should include the requirements in paragraphs .120–.125 and AU-C 705 does not apply.
.32 Except as discussed in paragraph .31, the auditor should modify the opinion in the auditor’s report, in accordance with AU-C section 705, if the auditor <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. concludes that, based on the audit evidence obtained, the financial statements as a whole are materially misstated or</li> <li>b. is unable to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence to conclude that the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement.</li> </ul>
.33 If the auditor concludes that the financial statements do not achieve fair presentation, the auditor should discuss the matter with management and, depending on how the matter is resolved, should determine whether it is necessary to modify	.A65 There may be cases when the financial statements, although prepared in accordance with the requirements of a fair presentation framework, do not achieve fair presentation. When this is the case, it may be possible for management to include additional disclosures in the financial statements beyond those

the opinion in the auditor’s report in accordance with AU-C section 705. (Ref: par. .A65–.A66)	specifically required by the framework or, in unusual circumstances, to depart from a requirement in the framework, which would be extremely rare, in order to achieve fair presentation of the financial statements. .A66 The “Accounting Principles Rule” (ET sec. 1.320.001) of the AICPA Code of Professional Conduct states the following: A member shall not (1) express an opinion or state affirmatively that the financial statements or other financial data of any entity are presented in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles or (2) state that he or she is not aware of any material modifications that should be made to such statements or data in order for them to be in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles, if such statements or data contain any departure from an accounting principle promulgated by bodies designated by Council to establish such principles that has a material effect on the statements or data taken as a whole. If, however, the statements or data contain such a departure and the member can demonstrate that due to unusual circumstances the financial statements or data would otherwise have been misleading, the member can comply with the rule by describing the departure, its approximate effects, if practicable, and the reasons why compliance with the principle would result in a misleading statement.
.34 Paragraphs .89–.116 describe the requirements for the auditor’s report when the ERISA-permitted scope limitation is imposed, and there are no other limitations on the scope of the audit and no identified material misstatements of the financial statements exist. .35 When there are other limitations on the scope of the audit, beyond what is permitted by ERISA section 103(a)(C), or when the auditor has identified material misstatements of the financial statements of the ERISA plan, the reporting elements in the following paragraphs are not appropriate to include in the auditor’s report and the auditor should modify the auditor’s opinion in accordance with AU-C section 705. (Ref. par. .A67–.A69) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Paragraph .93ii)</li> <li>• Paragraphs .94–.95</li> </ul>	.A67 When AU-C section 705 applies and the auditor is issuing a modified opinion on the ERISA plan financial statements it is not appropriate to— <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• include the words from paragraph .93ii) in the introductory paragraph to differentiate the report required by paragraph .34 from the modified opinion being issued.</li> <li>• Include a section with the Basis for Limitation on the Scope of the Audit in paragraphs .94–.95 because including such a section may overshadow the modification to the opinion. It may be appropriate to include such content in the basis for modified opinion paragraph.</li> <li>• Use the opinion as required by paragraphs .106–.107 because the auditor is precluded from using such opinion when there are other limitations on the scope of the audit or there is</li> </ul>

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Paragraphs .106–.107</li> </ul>	a material misstatement of the financial statements. .A68 As discussed in paragraph .35, certain of the reporting elements are not appropriate to be included in the auditor’s report when there are other limitations on the scope of the audit beyond what is permitted by ERISA section 103(a)(C). For example, when the plan has not maintained sufficient accounting records and supporting documents (at either the plan level or the participant data level, or both) such that the auditor is unable to perform auditing procedures sufficient to determine the extent to which the financial statements may have been affected by the lack of books and records, AU-C section 705 applies and the auditor is required to modify the auditor’s opinion accordingly. .A69 AU-C section 705 discusses the decision regarding which type of modified opinion is appropriate<sup>10</sup> When deciding on the appropriate modified opinion, the possible effects of the ERISA-permitted scope limitation is also considered along with the lack of books and records and may be included in the basis for the modified opinion paragraph. See Illustration 7, An Auditor’s Report Containing a Disclaimer of Opinion, Due to the Auditor’s Inability to Obtain Sufficient Appropriate Audit Evidence Because the Plan Has Not Maintained Sufficient Accounting Records, on Financial Statements of a Defined Contribution Retirement Plan Subject to ERISA When Management Imposes a Limitation on the Scope of the Audit As Permitted by ERISA, of Appendix A Illustrations of Auditor’s Reports on Financial Statements of Employee Benefit Plans Subject to ERISA.
.36 If the auditor is unable to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding noninvestment related information or investment information not covered by a certification, the auditor should apply the requirements in AU-C section 705, and paragraph .35 applies when determining the content of the auditor’s report. (See paragraph .21.) (Ref. par. .A70–.A71)	.A70 If the auditor determines that the auditor’s report required by paragraph .34 is not appropriate in the circumstances and the auditor is required to apply the requirements in AU-C section 705, it may not be appropriate for the auditor to report on whether the supplementary information is fairly stated in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole or opine on the form and content of the supplemental schedules as presented in compliance

	with the DOL’s Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure Under ERISA, as discussed in paragraphs .118-.119. .A71 For example, the auditor issues a disclaimer of opinion because the plan did not maintain sufficient accounting records and supporting documentation and the auditor was unable to apply auditing procedures sufficient to determine the extent to which the financial statements may have been affected. The auditor concluded that the effects could be material and pervasive. In such situations, it would not be appropriate for the auditor to provide an opinion on the supplemental schedules because AU-C section 725 precludes the auditor from expressing an opinion on supplementary information when the auditor’s report on the audited financial statements contains an adverse or a disclaimer of opinion.<sup>11</sup>

Considerations Relating to the Form 5500 Filing	Considerations Relating to the Form 5500 Filing
Reading the Form 5500	Reading the Form 5500 (Ref. par. .37–.38)
.37 The auditor should read the Form 5500 in order to identify material inconsistencies, if any, with the audited financial statements. (Ref. par. .A72–.A73)	.A72 Information in the Form 5500 may be relevant to an independent audit or the continuing propriety of the auditor’s report. Information contained in the Form 5500 that conflicts with information contained in the audited financial statements is considered an inconsistency. A material inconsistency may raise doubt about the audit conclusions drawn from audit evidence previously obtained and, possibly, about the basis for the auditor’s opinion on the financial statements. .A73 Certain differences exist between the Form 5500 Schedule H Financial Information and GAAP financial statements. For example, the net assets of a 401(h) account related to a defined benefit pension plan are included in the Form 5500 for the defined benefit pension plan however, the financial statements do not reflect the net assets of the 401(h) account because such amounts are not available to pay pension benefits (rather they are used only to pay retiree health benefits). DOL rules and regulations require the notes to the financial statements to include an explanation of differences, if any, between the information contained in the separate financial statements and the net assets, liabilities, income, expense, and changes in net assets as required to be reported on the Form 5500 Schedule H, Financial Information . Such reconciling items are not considered inconsistencies with the Form 5500.

.38 The auditor should make appropriate arrangements with management to obtain the Form 5500 prior to the report release date. <sup>12</sup> If it is not possible to obtain the Form 5500 prior to the report release date, the auditor should read the Form 5500 as soon as practicable. (Ref. par. .A74)	.A74 Obtaining the Form 5500 prior to the report release date enables the auditor to resolve possible material inconsistencies and apparent material misstatement of facts with management on a timely basis. An agreement with management regarding when the Form 5500 will be available may be helpful. The auditor may delay the release of the auditor’s report until management provides the Form 5500 to the auditor. Misstatements of fact are information contained in the Form 5500 that is unrelated to matters appearing in the audited financial statements that is incorrectly stated or presented. Misstatements of fact may be identified by the auditor upon reading the Form 5500 for the purpose of identifying material inconsistencies as discussed in paragraph .47.
.39 The auditor should communicate with those charged with governance the auditor’s responsibility with respect to the Form 5500, procedures performed relating to the Form 5500, and the results of those procedures.
Material Inconsistencies with the Form 5500
.40 If, on reading the Form 5500, the auditor identifies a material inconsistency, the auditor should determine whether the audited financial statements or the Form 5500 needs to be revised.
Material Inconsistencies with the Form 5500 Identified Prior to the Date of the Auditor’s Report That Require Revision of the Audited Financial Statements

<sup>12</sup> See paragraph .06 of AU-C section 230, Audit Documentation, for the definition of report release date.

.41 When the auditor identifies material inconsistencies between the Form 5500 and the financial statements prior to the date of the auditor’s report that requires revision of the audited financial statements and management refuses to make the revision, the auditor should modify the auditor’s opinion in accordance with AU-C section 705.
Material Inconsistencies with the Form 5500 Identified After the Date of the Auditor’s Report But Prior to the Report Release Date That Require Revision of the Audited Financial Statements
.42 When the auditor identifies a material inconsistency between the form 5500 and the financial statements after the date of the auditor’s report but prior to the report release date that requires revision of the audited financial statements, the auditor should apply the relevant requirements in AU-C section 560, Subsequent Events and Subsequently Discovered Facts.

If such a situation occurs, the auditor may want to inform the plan administrator that the auditor’s report is not to be attached to the financial statements included with the Form 5500 filing without the auditor’s reading of the Form 5500. When the engagement letter is prepared, it may include a statement that in the event that the auditor’s report is issued prior to the auditor having read the Form 5500, the plan administrator agrees not to attach the auditor’s report to the financial statements included with the Form 5500 filing until the auditor has read the completed Form 5500. The auditor may also consider including a statement in the transmittal letter to the client indicating that the auditor’s report, as presented, is not to be attached to the financial statements to be included in the Form 5500 filing without the auditor’s reading of that filing. .A77 If the auditor is unable to obtain the final Form 5500 prior to the report release date, the auditor may want to, as a minimum, read a draft of the Form 5500 Schedule H, Financial Information, before the report is released.
.45 When revision of the Form 5500 is necessary after the report release date and management agrees to make the revision, the auditor should carry out the procedures necessary under the circumstances. (Ref. par. .A78)	.A78 When revision of the information in the Form 5500 is necessary after the report release date and management agrees to make the revision, the auditor’s procedures may include reviewing the steps taken by management to ensure that individuals in receipt of the previously issued financial statements, the auditor’s report thereon, and the Form 5500 are informed of the need for revision.
.46 When revision of the Form 5500 is necessary after the report release date but management refuses to make the revision, the auditor should notify those charged with governance of the auditor’s concerns regarding the Form 5500 and take any further appropriate action. (Ref. par. .A79)	.A79 When revision of information in the Form 5500 is necessary after the report release date but management refuses to make the revision, appropriate further actions by the auditor may include obtaining legal advice.

Title	Title (Ref. par. .51 and .91)
.51 The auditor’s report should have a title that includes the word independent to clearly indicate that it is the report of an independent auditor. (Ref. par. .A84)	.A84 A title indicating the report is the report of an independent auditor (for example, “Independent Auditor’s Report”) affirms that the auditor has met all of the relevant ethical requirements regarding independence and, therefore, distinguishes the independent auditor’s report from reports issued by others. AU-C section 200 provides guidance on reporting when the auditor is not independent.

Addressee	Addressee (Ref. par. .52 and .92)
.52 The auditor’s report should be addressed as required by the circumstances of the engagement. (Ref. par. .A85–.A86)	.A85 The auditor’s report is normally addressed to those for whom the report is prepared. The report may be addressed to the entity whose financial statements are being audited or to those charged with governance. Occasionally, an auditor may be retained to audit the financial statements of an entity that is not a client; in such a case, the report may be addressed to the client and not to those charged with governance of the entity whose financial statements are being audited. .A86 For ERISA plans, the report may be addressed to the plan or trust whose financial statements are being audited, the plan administrator or board of trustees, or participants and beneficiaries.
Introductory Paragraph	Introductory Paragraph (Ref. par. .53 and .93)
.53 The introductory paragraph in the auditor’s report should (Ref. par. .A87–.A88) <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Identify the title of each statement that the financial statements comprise, and</li> <li>d. Specify the date or period covered by each financial statement that the financial statements comprise</li> </ol>	.A87 The introductory paragraph states, for example, that the auditor has "audited the accompanying financial statements of ABC Plan, which comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 20X1 and 20X2, and the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefits for the year ended December 31, 20X2, and the related notes to the financial statements."
	.A88 The auditor’s opinion covers the complete set of financial statements, as defined by the applicable financial reporting framework. For example, in the case of many general purpose frameworks, the financial statements include statements of net assets available for benefits, a statement of changes in net assets available for benefits, and for defined benefit pension plans may include a statement of accumulated plan benefits and a statement of changes in accumulated plan benefits and for a defined benefit health and welfare plan, a statement of benefit obligations and statement of changes in benefit obligations, including related notes. In some circumstances, additional or different statements, schedules, or information also might be considered to be an integral part of the financial statements.

.54 The auditor’s report should include a section with the heading “Management’s Responsibility for the Financial Statements of an Employee Benefit Plan Subject to ERISA”
.55 The auditor’s report should describe management’s responsibility for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements. The description should include an explanation that management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with the applicable financial reporting framework; this responsibility includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error. It should also state that management is responsible for: (Ref. par. .A89–.A90)	.A89 AU-C section 200 explains the premise relating to the responsibilities of management and, when appropriate, those charged with governance on which an audit in accordance with GAAS is conducted.<sup>13</sup> Management and, when appropriate, those charged with governance accept responsibility for the preparation of the financial statements in accordance with the applicable financial reporting framework, including their fair presentation. Management also accepts responsibility for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error. The description of management’s responsibilities in the auditor’s report includes reference to both responsibilities because it helps explain to users the premise on which an audit is conducted. .A90 Management has additional responsibilities when arranging for an audit of ERISA plan financial statements due to the regulatory nature of such plans.
a. maintaining a current plan instrument, including all plan amendments, and b. administering the plan and determining that the plan’s transactions that are presented and disclosed in the financial statements are in conformity with the plan’s provisions, including maintaining sufficient records with respect to each of the participants, in accordance with ERISA section 107 and 209, to determine the benefits due or which may become due to such participants

.56 The description about management’s responsibility for the financial statements in the auditor’s report should not be referenced to a separate statement by management about such responsibilities even if such a statement is included in a document containing the auditor’s report. (Ref. par. .A91)	.A91 In some instances, a document containing the auditor’s report may include a separate statement by management regarding its responsibility for the preparation of the financial statements. Any elaboration in the auditor’s report about management’s responsibilities regarding the preparation of the financial statements, or reference to a separate statement by management about such responsibilities if one is included in a document containing the auditor’s report, may lead users to erroneously believe that the auditor is providing assurances about representations made by management about their responsibility for financial reporting, internal control, and other matters that might be discussed in the statement by management in the document.
Auditor’s Responsibility	Auditor’s Responsibility (Ref. par. .57–.61 and .99–.105)
.57 The auditor’s report should include a section with the heading “Auditor’s Responsibility.”
.58 The auditor’s report should state that the responsibility of the auditor is to express an opinion on the financial statements based on the audit. (Ref. par. .A92)	.A92 The auditor’s report states that the auditor’s responsibility is to express an opinion on the financial statements based on the audit in order to contrast it to management’s responsibility for the preparation of the financial statements.
.59 The auditor’s report should state that the audit was conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and should identify the United States of America as the country of origin of those standards. The auditor’s report should also explain that those standards require that the auditor plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement. (Ref. par. .A93–.A94)	.A93 The reference to the standards used conveys to the users of the auditor’s report that the audit has been conducted in accordance with established standards. For example, the auditor’s report may refer to auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America or U.S. generally accepted auditing standards.
	.A94 In accordance with AU-C section 200, the auditor does not represent compliance with GAAS in the auditor’s report, unless the auditor has complied

	with the requirements of section 200 and all other AU sections relevant to the audit. <sup>14</sup>
.60 The auditor’s report should describe an audit by stating that <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. an audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.</li> <li>b. the procedures selected depend on the auditor’s judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity’s preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity’s internal control.</li> <li>c. Accordingly, the auditor expresses no such opinion.</li> <li>d. an audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of the accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as the overall presentation of the financial statements.</li> </ul> In circumstances when the auditor also has a responsibility to express an opinion on the effectiveness of internal control in conjunction with the audit of the financial statements, the auditor should omit the phrase that the auditor’s consideration of internal control is not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of internal control, and accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
.61 The auditor’s report should state whether the auditor believes that the audit evidence the auditor has obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for the auditor’s opinion.

<sup>14</sup> Paragraph .22 of AU-C section 200.

Auditor's Opinion	Auditor's Opinion (Ref. par. .62–.64)
.62 The auditor's report should include a section with the heading "Opinion."
	Description of Information That the Financial Statements Present
.63 When expressing an unmodified opinion on financial statements, the auditor's opinion should state that the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the [...] in accordance with [the applicable financial reporting framework.] (Ref. par. .A95)	.A95 Description of information that the financial statements present. The auditor's opinion states that the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the information that the financial statements are designed to present. For example, in the case of ERISA plan financial statements prepared in accordance with GAAP, these matters are the statements net assets available for benefits [and of accumulated plan benefits] as of the end of the period and the statement of changes in net assets available for benefits [and of changes in accumulated plan benefits] for the period then ended. For defined benefit pension plan, the accumulated plan benefits and changes in accumulated plan benefits may be presented in the notes to the financial statements. The notes to the financial statements are an integral part of the financial statements so the auditor's opinion covers these amounts regardless of whether they are presented in separate statements or in the notes to the financial statements.
.64 The auditor's opinion should identify the applicable financial reporting framework and its origin. (Ref. par. .A96)	.A96 Description of the applicable financial reporting framework and how it may affect the auditor's opinion. The identification of the applicable financial reporting framework in the auditor's opinion is intended to advise users of the auditor's report of the context in which the auditor's opinion is expressed; it is not intended to limit the evaluation required in paragraph .28 of this proposed SAS. For example, the applicable financial reporting framework may be identified as accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America or U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.
Other Reporting Responsibilities	Other Reporting Responsibilities (Ref. par. .65–.66)

.65 If the auditor addresses other reporting responsibilities in the auditor’s report on the financial statements that are in addition to the auditor’s responsibility under GAAS to report on the financial statements, these other reporting responsibilities should be addressed in a separate section in the auditor’s report that should be subtitled "Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements" or otherwise, as appropriate to the content of the section. (Ref. par. .A97–.A98)	.A97 In some circumstances, the auditor may have additional responsibilities to report on other matters that are supplementary to the auditor’s responsibility under GAAS to report on the financial statements. The form and content of the "Other Reporting Responsibilities" section of the auditor’s report described in paragraph .65 will vary depending on the nature of the auditor’s other reporting responsibilities. .A98 In some cases, the relevant law or regulation may require or permit the auditor to report on these other responsibilities within the auditor’s report on the financial statements. In other cases, the auditor may be required or permitted to report on them in a separate report.
.66 If the auditor’s report contains a separate section on other reporting responsibilities, the headings, statements, and explanations referred to in paragraphs .53–.64 should be under the subtitle "Report on the Financial Statements." The "Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements" should follow the "Report on the Financial Statements." (Ref. par. .A99)	.A99 These other reporting responsibilities are addressed in a separate section of the auditor’s report in order to clearly distinguish them from the auditor’s responsibility under GAAS to report on the financial statements. When relevant, this section may contain subheading(s) that describe(s) the content of the other reporting responsibility paragraph(s).
Reporting on Specific Plan Provisions Relating to the Financial Statements	Reporting on Specific Plan Provisions Relating to the Financial Statements (Ref. par. .67–.68)
.67 The auditor should report on its findings relating to the specific plan provisions relating to the financial statements for the current period, regardless of whether or not the auditor noted findings. (Ref. par. .A100)	.A100 The auditor’s Report on Specific Plan Provisions Relating to the Financial Statements is limited to the findings resulting from the procedures in paragraphs .16–.17 for the current period, even when comparative financial statements are presented (i.e., even when the auditor’s opinion refers to each period for which financial statements are presented). The current period is the most recent period upon which the auditor is reporting.
.68 If the Report on Specific Plan Provisions Relating to the Financial Statements is included in the auditor’s report, as permitted by paragraph .121, the auditor’s report should include a separate section with the heading “Report on Specific Plan Provisions Relating to the Financial Statements”. The requirements in paragraphs .120–.125 apply. While some of these provisions do not relate to accounts that are presented as financial statement account balances, they do affect investment related transactions and balances of the plan and the benefits to which participants are entitled to receive.

.69 If the Report on Specific Plan Provisions Relating to the Financial Statements is presented in a separate report, as permitted by paragraph .121, the auditor’s report on the financial statements should include an other-matter paragraph as required by paragraph .123. Auditor’s Report for Audits Conducted in Accordance with Both GAAS and Another Set of Auditing Standards

However, an auditor may indicate that the audit was also conducted in accordance with another set of auditing standards (for example, International Standards on Auditing [ISAs], the standards of the PCAOB, or Government Auditing Standards). The auditor should not refer to having conducted an audit in accordance with another set of auditing standards in addition to GAAS, unless the audit was conducted in accordance with both sets of standards in their entirety.
.74 When the auditor’s report refers to both GAAS and another set of auditing standards, the auditor’s report should identify the other set of auditing standards, as well as their origin.

.75 When conducting an audit of financial statements in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB and the audit is not within the jurisdiction of the PCAOB, the auditor is required to also conduct the audit in accordance with GAAS. In such circumstances, when the auditor refers to the standards of the PCAOB in addition to GAAS in the auditor’s report, the auditor should use the form of report required by the standards of the PCAOB, amended to state that the audit was also conducted in accordance with GAAS. (Ref. par. .A109–.A113)	.A109 Auditors of financial statements of entities whose audits are within the jurisdiction of the PCAOB, which include issuers (as defined by the SEC) and nonissuer brokers and dealers registered with the SEC, are required to be registered with, and subject to inspection by, the PCAOB. In such circumstances, the AICPA Code of Professional Conduct requires AICPA members to conduct the audit in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB, and the audit is not required to also be conducted in accordance with GAAS.<sup>17</sup> .A110 When the auditor follows the standards of the PCAOB regarding the form of the auditor’s report, PCAOB reporting requirements for specific circumstances, such as reporting on an integrated audit or supplementary information, may also be applicable. .A111 The form of the auditor’s report required by the standards of the PCAOB states that the audit was conducted in accordance with "the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States)." A reference to "the standards" of the PCAOB indicates that the auditor has complied not only with the PCAOB’s auditing standards, but also with the related professional practice standards of the PCAOB, including its independence rules; whereas a reference to "the auditing standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States)" is limited to compliance with the auditing standards of the PCAOB. The auditor of financial statements of an entity whose audits are not within the jurisdiction of the PCAOB may, nevertheless, be responsible for complying with the independence and other related professional practice standards of the PCAOB if, for example, the engagement is subject to regulatory oversight that requires compliance with those rules. Comparative Financial Statements	Comparative Financial Statements (Ref. par. .76)
.76 Comparative financial statements may be required by the applicable financial reporting framework, or management may elect to provide such information. When comparative financial statements are presented, the auditor’s report should refer to each period for which financial statements are presented and on which an audit opinion is expressed. (Ref. par. .A114–.A116)	.A114 The level of information included for the prior periods in comparative financial statements is comparable with that of the financial statements of the current period. .A115 Because the auditor’s report on comparative financial statements applies to the financial statements for each of the periods presented, the auditor may express a qualified opinion or an adverse opinion, disclaim an opinion, or use the ERISA-permitted scope limitation report described in paragraphs .89–.116, include an emphasis-of-matter paragraph with respect to one or more financial statements for one or more periods while expressing a different auditor’s opinion on one or more financial statements of another period presented.
	.A116 ERISA requires a statement of assets and liabilities of the Plan to be displayed in comparative form. This may be achieved by presenting the statement of net assets available for benefits in comparative form.

In addition, an updated report is issued in conjunction with the auditor’s report on the current period financial statements. Other Considerations Relating to Comparative Financial Statements .A118 If one firm of independent auditors merges with another firm, and the new firm becomes the auditor of a former client of one of the two former firms, the new firm may accept responsibility and express an opinion on the financial statements for the prior period(s), as well as for those of the current period. In such circumstances, paragraphs .76–.87 apply. The new firm may indicate in the auditor’s report or as part of the signature that a merger took place and may name the firm of independent auditors that was merged with it. If the new firm decides not to express an opinion on the prior period financial statements, the guidance for the reissuance of reports in AU-C section 560 would apply.
Audit Procedures
.78 The auditor should perform the procedures required by paragraphs .79–.81 if comparative financial statements are presented for the prior period(s).
.79 The auditor should determine whether the comparative financial statements have been presented in accordance with the relevant requirements, if any, of the applicable financial reporting framework.
.80 The auditor should evaluate whether
a. the comparative financial statements agree with the amounts and other disclosures presented in the prior period or, when appropriate, has been restated for the correction of a material misstatement or

b. the accounting policies reflected in the comparative financial statements are consistent with those applied in the current period or if there have been changes in accounting policies, whether those changes have been properly accounted for and adequately presented and disclosed.<sup>20</sup>
.81 If the auditor becomes aware of a possible material misstatement in the comparative financial statements while performing the current period audit, the auditor should perform such additional audit procedures as are necessary in the circumstances to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence to determine whether a material misstatement exists. If the auditor audited the prior period’s financial statements and becomes aware of a material misstatement in those financial statements, the auditor should also follow the relevant requirements of AU-C section 560. If the prior period financial statements are restated, the auditor should determine that the comparative financial statements agree with the restated financial statements.
	Written Representations (Ref. par. .82–.83)
.82 As required by AU-C section 580, Written Representations, the auditor should request written representations for all periods referred to in the auditor’s opinion. The auditor also should obtain a specific written representation regarding any restatement made to correct a material misstatement in a prior period that affects the comparative financial statements. (Ref. par. .A119)	.A119 In the case of comparative financial statements, the written representations are requested for all periods referred to in the auditor’s opinion because management needs to reaffirm that the written representations it previously made with respect to the prior period remain appropriate.
.83 When reporting on prior period financial statements in connection with the current period’s audit, if the auditor’s opinion on such prior period financial statements differs from the opinion the auditor previously expressed, the auditor should disclose the following matters in an emphasis-of-matter or other-matter paragraph, in accordance with AU-C section 706:

a. The date of the auditor’s previous report
b. The type of opinion previously expressed
c. The substantive reasons for the different opinion
d. That the auditor’s opinion on the amended financial statements is different from the auditor’s previous opinion (Ref. par. .A120)	Opinion on Prior Period Financial Statements Different From Previous Opinion (Ref. par. .83) .A120 When reporting on the prior period financial statements in connection with the current period’s audit, the opinion expressed on the prior period financial statements may be different from the opinion previously expressed if the auditor becomes aware of circumstances or events that materially affect the financial statements of a prior period during the course of the audit of the current period. In some circumstances, the auditor may have additional reporting responsibilities designed to prevent future reliance on the auditor’s previously issued report on the prior period financial statements.<sup>21</sup>

d. The date of that report
.85 If the auditor concludes that a material misstatement exists that affects the prior period financial statements on which the predecessor auditor had previously reported without modification, the auditor should follow the communication requirements in AU-C section 510.<sup>24</sup> If the prior period financial statements are restated, and the predecessor auditor agrees to issue a new auditor’s report on the restated financial statements of the prior period, the auditor should express an opinion only on the current period. (Ref. par. .A121)	.A121 The predecessor auditor may be unable or unwilling to reissue the auditor’s report on the prior period financial statements that have been restated. In this situation, provided that the auditor has audited the adjustments to the prior period financial statements, the auditor may include an other-matter paragraph<sup>25</sup> in the auditor’s report indicating that the predecessor auditor reported on the financial statements of the prior period before restatement. In addition, if the auditor is engaged to audit and obtains sufficient appropriate audit evidence to be satisfied about the appropriateness of the restatement, the auditor’s report may also include the following paragraph within the other-matter paragraph section: As part of our audit of the 20X2 financial statements, we also audited the adjustments described in Note X that were applied to restate the 20X1 financial statements. In our opinion, such adjustments are appropriate and have been properly applied. We were not engaged to audit, review, or apply any procedures to the 20X1 financial statements of the Plan other than with respect to the adjustments and, accordingly, we do not express an opinion or any other form of assurance on the 20X1 financial statements as a whole.

However, a review is substantially less in scope than an audit and does not provide a basis for the expression of an opinion on the financial statements. .A124 If the prior period financial statements were compiled, the following is an example of an other-matter paragraph: Other Matter The 20X1 financial statements were compiled by us (other accountants) and our (their) report thereon, dated March 1, 20X2, stated we (they) did not audit or review those financial statements and, accordingly, express no opinion or other form of assurance on them
.87 If the prior period financial statements were not audited, reviewed, or compiled, the financial statements should be clearly marked to indicate their status, and the auditor’s report should include an other-matter paragraph to indicate that the auditor has not audited, reviewed, or compiled the prior period financial statements and that the auditor assumes no responsibility for them. (Ref. par. .A125)	.A125 If the prior period financial statements were not audited, reviewed, or compiled, the following is an example of an other-matter paragraph: Other Matter The accompanying statement of net assets available for benefits of X Plan as of December 31, 20X1, and the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefits for the year then ended were not audited, reviewed, or compiled by us and, accordingly, we do not express an opinion or any other form of assurance on them.

When there are other limitations on the scope of the audit, other than what is permitted by ERISA section 103(a)(C), or when the auditor had identified material misstatements of the financial statements of the ERISA plan, AU-C section 705 applies. .A130 ERISA requires certain comparative financial statements to be presented and therefore paragraphs .76–.87 of this proposed SAS applies, even when the ERISA-permitted scope limitation is imposed.

.96 The auditor’s report should include a section with the heading “Management’s Responsibility for the Financial Statements and the Limitation on the Scope of the Audit”.
.97 The auditor’s report should describe management’s responsibility for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements. The description should include an explanation that management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with the applicable financial reporting framework; this responsibility includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error. It should also state that: (Ref. par. .A89–.A90)
a. management is responsible for maintaining a current plan instrument, including all plan amendments

b. management is responsible for determining whether a limitation on the scope of the audit is permissible in the circumstances, in accordance with ERISA, including <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. evaluating whether the certification is prepared by a qualified institution, and</li> <li>b. evaluating whether the certified investment information is complete and accurate.</li> </ul>
c. the limitation on the scope of the audit does not affect management’s responsibility for the financial statements and management is responsible for determining whether the certified investment information is appropriately measured, presented and disclosed in accordance with the applicable financial reporting framework.
d. management is also responsible for administering the plan and determining that the plan’s transactions that are presented or disclosed in the financial statements are in conformity with the plan’s provisions, including maintaining sufficient records with respect to each of the participants, in accordance with ERISA sections 107 and 209, to determine the benefits due or which may become due to such participants.
.98 The description about management’s responsibility for the financial statements in the auditor’s report should not be referenced to a separate statement by management about such responsibilities if such a statement is included in a document containing the auditor’s report. (Ref. par. .A91)
Auditor’s Responsibility (Including Responsibility for the Certified Investment Information)

.99 The auditor’s report should include a section with the heading “Auditor’s Responsibility (Including Responsibility for the Certified Investment Information).”
.100 The auditor’s report should state that the responsibility of the auditor is to express an opinion on the financial statements based on the audit. (Ref par. .A92)
.101 The auditor’s report should state that the audit was conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and should identify the United States of America as the country of origin of those standards. The auditor’s report should also explain that those standards require that the auditor plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement. (Ref. par. .A93–.A94)
.102 The auditor’s report should describe an audit by stating that <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. an audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.</li> <li>b. the procedures selected depend on the auditor’s judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity’s preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity’s internal control, and accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.</li> <li>c. an audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of the accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made</li> </ul>

by management, as well as the overall presentation of the financial statements. In circumstances when the auditor also has a responsibility to express an opinion on the effectiveness of internal control in conjunction with the audit of the financial statements, the auditor should omit the phrase that the auditor’s consideration of internal control is not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of internal control, and accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
.103 The auditor’s report should state that with the respect to the certified investment information that management instructed the auditor not to audit, the auditor did not assess the risks of material misstatement nor did the auditor consider internal control over the certified investment information, and that the procedures were limited to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. obtaining and reading the certification</li> <li>b. evaluating management’s assessment of whether the entity issuing the certification is a qualified institution under ERISA</li> <li>c. comparing the certified investment information with the related information presented or disclosed in the financial statements</li> <li>d. evaluating whether the form and content of the certified investment information presented or disclosed in the financial statements is in accordance with the applicable financial reporting framework</li> </ul>
.104 The auditor’s report should state that other than with respect to the certified investment information, the audit procedures were not limited for other amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
.105 The auditor’s report should state whether the auditor believes that the audit evidence the auditor has obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for the auditor’s opinion with the ERISA-permitted audit scope limitation. on the financial statements

Auditor’s Opinion with the ERISA-permitted audit scope limitation.on the Financial Statements
.106 The auditor’s report should include a section with the heading “Auditor’s Opinion with the ERISA-permitted Audit Scope Limitation on the Financial Statements”
.107 When the ERISA-permitted limitation is the only limitation on the scope of the audit and the auditor has not identified any material misstatements, the auditor’s report should include a statement that in the auditor’s opinion, based on the audit and based on the use of the certification of the investment information which we were not required to audit, the financial statements are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with the applicable financial reporting framework. .108 The auditor’s opinion should identify the applicable financial reporting framework and its origin. (Ref. par. .A96)
Other Reporting Responsibilities	Other Reporting Responsibilities (Ref. par. .109–.110)
.109 If the auditor addresses other reporting responsibilities in the auditor’s report on the financial statements that are in addition to the auditor’s responsibility under GAAS to report on the financial statements, these other reporting responsibilities should be addressed in a separate section in the auditor’s report that should be subtitled "Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements" or otherwise, as appropriate to the content of the section. (Ref. par. .A132–.A133)	.A132 In some circumstances, the auditor may have additional responsibilities to report on other matters that are supplementary to the auditor’s responsibility under GAAS to report on the financial statements. The form and content of the "Other Reporting Responsibilities" section of the auditor’s report described in paragraph .65 will vary depending on the nature of the auditor’s other reporting responsibilities. .A133 In some cases, the relevant law or regulation may require or permit the auditor to report on these other responsibilities within the auditor’s report on the financial statements. In other cases, the auditor may be required or permitted to report on them in a separate report.
.110 If the auditor’s report contains a separate section on other reporting responsibilities, the headings, statements, and explanations referred to in paragraphs .53–.64 should be under the subtitle "Report on the Financial Statements." The "Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements" should follow the "Report on the Financial Statements." (Ref. par. .A134)	.A134 These other reporting responsibilities are addressed in a separate section of the auditor’s report in order to clearly distinguish them from the auditor’s responsibility under GAAS to report on the financial statements. When relevant, this section may contain subheading(s) that describe(s) the content of the other reporting responsibility paragraph(s).

Reporting on Specific Plan Provisions Relating to the Financial Statements	Reporting on Specific Plan Provisions Relating to the Financial Statements (Ref. par. .111–.113)
.111 The auditor should report findings relating to the specific plan provisions relating to the financial statements for the current period, regardless of whether or not the auditor noted findings. (Ref. par. .A135–.A136) .112 If the Report on Specific Plan Provisions Relating to the Financial Statements is included in the auditor’s report, as permitted by paragraph .121, the auditor’s report should include a separate section with the heading “Report on Specific Plan Provisions Relating to the Financial Statements”. The requirements in paragraphs .120–.122, and .125 apply. .113 If the Report on Specific Plan Provisions Relating to the Financial Statements is presented in a separate report, as permitted by paragraph .121, the auditor’s report should include an other-matter paragraph as required by paragraph .123. The requirements in paragraphs .120 and .125 apply. .	.A135 It is the responsibility of management for determining that the plan’s transactions that are presented or disclosed in the financial statements are in accordance with plan provisions. While some of these provisions do not relate to accounts that are presented as financial statement account balances, they do affect investment related transactions and balances of the plan and the benefits to which participants are entitled to receive. .A136 The auditor’s Report on Specific Plan Provisions Relating to the Financial Statements is limited to the current period, even when comparative financial statements are presented (i.e., even when the auditor’s opinion refers to each period for which financial statements are presented). The current period is the most recent period upon which the auditor is reporting.
Signature of the Auditor
.114 The auditor’s report should include the manual or printed signature of the auditor’s firm. (Ref. par. .A102–.A103)
Auditor’s Address
.115 The auditor’s report should name the city and state where the auditor’s report is issued. (Ref. par. .A104–.A105)
Date of the Auditor’s Report
.116 The auditor’s report should be dated no earlier than the date on which the auditor has obtained an appropriate certification and has obtained sufficient appropriate audit evidence on which to base the auditor’s opinion on the financial statements, including evidence that <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. the audit documentation has been reviewed;</li> </ul>

b. all the statements that the financial statements comprise, including the related notes, have been prepared; and c. management has asserted that they have taken responsibility for those financial statements. (Ref. par. .A106–.A108)

Emphasis-of-Matter Paragraphs	Emphasis-of-Matter Paragraphs (Ref par. .117)
.117 The auditor’s report on ERISA plan financial statements should include an emphasis-of-matter paragraph , <sup>27</sup> under an appropriate heading, when the following situations exist:
a. There are significant plan amendments that affect net assets that are disclosed in the notes to the financial statements in accordance with the applicable financial reporting framework.
b. Minimum funding waivers were granted by the IRS, or if a request for waiver is pending before the IRS, that are disclosed in the notes to the financial statements in accordance with FASB ASC 960-205-50-1 and 962-205-50-1. (Ref. par. .A137)	.A137 The following is an illustration of an emphasis-of-matter paragraph when a defined benefit pension plan received a funding waiver.  Emphasis of Matter Regarding Funding Waiver  As discussed in Note X to the financial statements, the plan received a funding waiver from the IRS. Our opinion is not modified with respect to this matter.
c. There were significant changes in the nature of the plan, for example, a plan merger or spin-off that are disclosed in the notes to the financial statements in accordance with the applicable financial reporting framework. (Ref. par. .A138)	.A138 The following is an illustration of an emphasis-of-matter paragraphs when a defined contribution retirement plan is merged into another plan.  Emphasis of Matter Regarding Plan Merger  As discussed in Note X to the financial statements, the Board of Directors of ABC Company merged XYZ Plan into the ABC 401(k) plan effective December 31, 20X2. The plan’s net assets and related participant information were transferred to the ABC Plan on December 31, 20X2. Our opinion has not been modified with respect to this matter.

Reporting on ERISA Supplemental Schedules	Reporting on ERISA Supplemental Schedules (Ref. par. .118–.119)
.118 ERISA requires that certain supplemental schedules accompany the ERISA plan financial statements if applicable. When auditing ERISA plan financial statements, the auditor should report on whether such supplemental schedules are fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole, in accordance with AU-C section 725, Supplementary Information in Relation to the Financial Statements as a Whole. (Ref. par. .A139–.A140)	.A139 According to 29 CFR 2520.103-10 the administrator of a plan filing an annual report pursuant to ERISA section 2520.103-1(a)(2) should, as provided in the instructions to the Form 5500 “Annual Return/Report of Employee Benefit Plan” include as part of the annual report certain separate financial schedules. .A140 Such schedules are required to be attached to the Form 5500 filing.<sup>28</sup> These schedules are covered by the auditor’s report on whether such supplemental schedules are fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole, in accordance with AU-C section 725. The Form 5500 is updated annually and therefore the Form 5500 contains the most current information about the required schedules.
.119 AU-C section 725 addresses the performance requirements as well as the form and content of the report on supplementary information in relation to the financial statements as a whole. When an entity presents the supplementary information with the financial statements, AU-C section 725 requires the auditor to report on the supplementary information in either (a) an other-matter paragraph in accordance with section 706, or (b) in a separate report on the supplementary information.<sup>29</sup> When performing an audit of ERISA plan financial statements, the reporting elements discussed in paragraph .09 of AU-C section 725 should be replaced with the following:
a. A statement that the audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements as a whole
b. A statement that the supplementary information is presented for the purposes of

<sup>28</sup> Appendix A in the AICPA Audit and Accounting Guide Employee Benefit Plans provides a listing of the required ERISA schedules.

<sup>29</sup> AU-C section 725 Supplementary Information in Relation to the Financial Statements as a Whole, paragraph .09.

c. A statement that the supplementary information is the responsibility of management and was derived from, and relates directly to, the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements
d. A statement that the supplementary information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, performing procedures to test the completeness and accuracy of the supplementary information included in the supplemental schedules, and other additional procedures, in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America.
e. When reporting on an audit of ERISA plan financial statements when the ERISA-permitted scope limitation is imposed, the paragraph in .119d. should be revised to reflect the use of certification of investment information as part of the audit. Further, the report should include a statement that the auditor’s procedures with respect to the certified investment information included in the supplemental schedules were limited to those procedures described in the Auditor’s Responsibility (Including Responsibility for the Certified Investment Information) section. (Ref. par. .A141)	.A141 Paragraph .119d may be revised as follows: “The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audits of the financial statements and the use of the certification of the investment information, which we were not required to audit.”
f. A statement that in forming the opinion on the supplemental schedules, the auditor evaluated whether the supplementary information, including its form and content, is presented in conformity with the Department of Labor’s Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure Under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974.

	Errors, Omissions, or Inconsistency of Supplementary Information Required by the DOL
g. If the auditor issues an unmodified opinion on the financial statements and the auditor has concluded that the supplementary information is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole, a statement that, in the auditor’s opinion, the supplementary information is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole, and is in conformity with the DOL’s Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974. (Ref. par. .A142–.A144)	.A142 When the auditor concludes, on the basis of the procedures performed, that the supplementary information is materially misstated in relation to the financial statements as a whole, AU-C section 725 requires the auditor to discuss the matter(s) with management and propose appropriate revision of the supplementary information. If management does not revise the supplementary information, the auditor is required to modify the auditor’s opinion on the supplemental schedules and describe the misstatement in the auditor’s report. If a separate report is being issued on the supplementary information, the auditor is required to withhold the auditor’s report on the supplementary information<sup>30</sup> .A143 During the audit the auditor may become aware of a departure from DOL requirements relating to the supplementary information that is not also a departure from the applicable financial reporting framework. If the departure is not related to a prohibited transaction with a party in interest, the auditor may consider including an additional communication in the auditor’s report (emphasis-of-matter or other-matter paragraph), in accordance with AU-C section 706. .A144 When the auditor concludes that the supplemental schedules do not contain all required information or contain information that is inaccurate or inconsistent with the financial statements, and the omission or inconsistency is not considered a material misstatement, the auditor may decide to include an additional paragraph in the report on the supplemental schedules to disclose the omission or inconsistency of the information.<sup>31</sup>
h. If the auditor becomes aware that the plan has entered into a prohibited transaction with a party in interest, and the transaction has not been properly disclosed in the required supplemental schedule, the auditor should modify the report on the supplemental schedule if the effect of the transaction is material based on the financial statement

materiality. If a material party in interest transaction that is not disclosed in the supplemental schedule is also considered a related party transaction and if that transaction is not properly disclosed in the notes to the financial statements, the auditor should modify the auditor’s opinion in accordance with AU-C section 705. If the effect of the transaction is not material to the financial statements, then the auditor may add a paragraph to the report on the supplemental schedule to disclose the omitted transaction.
i. If the auditor issues a qualified opinion on the financial statements and the qualification has an effect on the supplementary information, a statement that, that in the auditor’s opinion, except for the effects on the supplementary information of (refer to the paragraph in the auditor’s report explaining the qualification), such information is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole.<sup>32</sup>

Reporting on Specific Plan Provisions Relating to the Financial Statements	Reporting on Specific Plan Provisions Relating to the Financial Statements (Ref. par. .120–.122)
.120 The Report on Specific Plan Provisions Relating to the Financial Statements should be in writing.
.121 The Report on Specific Plan Provisions Relating to the Financial Statements should be provided either in one or more paragraphs included in the auditor’s report on the financial statements (see paragraph .125) or in a separate report (see paragraph .124). (Ref. par. .A145)	.A145 The Report on Specific Plan Provisions Relating to the Financial Statements is an integral part of an audit of ERISA plan financial statements in accordance with GAAS. ERISA section 103 requires the financial statements and auditor’s opinion to be attached to the Form 5500 filing. Accordingly, when the Report on Specific Plan Provisions Relating to the Financial Statements is provided in a separate report, such report is to be included with the auditor’s report that is attached to the Form 5500 filing.
.122 The Report on Specific Plan Provisions Relating to the Financial Statements is based on the required procedures for audits of ERISA plans in paragraphs .16–.17 of this proposed SAS and includes the auditor’s findings as required to be documented in paragraph .18, other than when the matters are clearly inconsequential. The auditor should be careful not to include any personal identifiable information (PII) when including the findings in the Report on Specific Plan Provisions Relating to the Financial Statements. (Ref. par. .A146–.A149)	.A146 Paragraph .12 of AU-C section 260 requires the auditor to communicate with those charged with governance significant findings or issues from the audit. Such communication includes findings or issues arising from the audit that are, in the auditor’s professional judgment, significant and relevant to those charged with governance regarding their responsibility to oversee the financial reporting process. .A147 The auditor may reach agreement in advance with those charged with governance on the nature of matters that would be considered clearly inconsequential and, thus, need not be communicated. .A148 When conducting an employee benefit plan audit, auditors receive and maintain large amounts of personal information (for example, name, address, date of birth, Social Security number, financial account number, and health information) the confidentiality of which is protected by both federal and state laws and regulations. Auditors are subject to professional standards that require them to maintain confidentiality of information obtained in the course of performing the audit. .A149 Personal Identifiable Information (PII) is defined as any representation of information that permits the identity of an individual to whom the information applies to be reasonably inferred by either direct or indirect means. Further, PII is defined as information: (i) that directly identifies an individual (e.g., name, address, social security number or other

	identifying number or code, telephone number, email address, etc.) or (ii) by which an agency intends to identify specific individuals in conjunction with other data elements, i.e., indirect identification. (These data elements may include a combination of gender, race, birth date, geographic indicator, and other descriptors). Additionally, information permitting the physical or online contacting of a specific individual is the same as personally identifiable information.
	.A150 Management may wish to prepare a written response to the auditor’s report regarding the findings that were reported. If the auditor receives a written response from management, the auditor may include management’s written response in the Report on Specific Plan Provisions Relating to the Financial Statements. In such situations the auditor may add a paragraph to the report disclaiming an opinion on such information. .A151 Management written response may include a description of corrective actions taken by the plan, its plans to correct the finding, or a statement indicating that management believes the cost of correcting the finding would exceed the benefits to be derived from doing so.
Separate Report on Specific Plan Provisions Relating to the Financial Statements	Separate Report on Specific Plan Provisions Relating to the Financial Statements (Ref. par. .123–.125)
.123 When reporting on specific plan provisions in a separate report the auditor should include an other-matter paragraph in the auditor’s report on the financial statements that includes:
a. A statement that in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, the auditor has also issued a report on the auditor’s testing of specific plan provisions relating to the financial statements in connection with obtaining reasonable assurance in an audit of the plan’s financial statements
b. The name of the plan
c. The date of the separate Report on Specific Plan Provisions Relating to the Financial Statements

d. A statement that the purpose of that report is to describe the results of the auditor’s procedures relating to specific plan provisions and not to provide an opinion on compliance with such plan provisions.
e. A statement that the report is an integral part of an employee benefit plan audit performed in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards.
.124 When the auditor reports on specific plan provisions in a separate report, the report should include (Ref. par. .A152)	.A152 Exhibit A, Illustration 4— Illustrative Separate Report on Specific Plan Provisions Relating to the Financial Statements includes an illustrative Report on Specific Plan Provisions Relating to the Financial Statements in an audit of an employee benefit plan subject to ERISA.
a. A title that includes the word independent to clearly indicate that it is the report of an independent auditor.
b. An appropriate addressee.
c. A paragraph that includes information about the audited financial statements, including (Ref. par. .A153) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>i. that the financial statements were audited in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and an identification of the United States of America as the country of origin of those standards (for example, auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America or U.S. generally accepted auditing standards);</li> <li>ii. an identification of the financial statements subject to audit;</li> <li>iii. the type of auditor’s opinion expressed on the audited financial statements;</li> <li>iv. the date of the auditor’s report on those financial statements; and</li> <li>v. a statement that the audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements as a whole</li> </ul>	.A153 When management has limited the scope of the audit as permitted by ERISA, the information contained in this paragraph of the Report on Specific Plan Provisions Relating to the Financial Statements would be revised as appropriate to the circumstances. Footnote 1 in illustration 4 of Appendix A provides illustrative wording in such situations.

d. A section with the heading “Report on Specific Plan Provisions Relating to the Financial Statements” This section of the report should state:
i. as part of obtaining reasonable assurance about whether the [identify the plan]’s financial statements are free from material misstatement, the auditor is required to perform certain procedures to test whether the plan and plan transactions are in accordance with specific plan provisions. ii. That the auditor performed procedures and the areas to which the procedures relate, such as procedures relating to participant eligibility, benefit payments, claim payments, participant vesting provisions, employer and employee contributions, disclosure of prohibited transactions, IRC compliance tests, participant asset allocations, use of forfeitures, allocation of account activity, and allocation of expenses. for the year ended [date] as required by generally accepted auditing standards for audits of employee benefit plans subject to ERISA as set forth in AU-C section 703, Forming an Opinion and Reporting on Financial Statements of Employee Benefit Plans Subject to ERISA. However, these procedures were not performed for the purpose of providing an opinion on compliance with those provisions.
iii. the auditor does not express such an opinion
e. When there are no findings a statement that the auditor did not have any findings relating to whether the plan and plan transactions are in accordance with specific plan provisions. However the audit was not designed to identify all instances where the plan and plan transactions are not in

accordance with those specific plan provisions.
f. When there are findings, a statement that, during the audit the auditor noted the following findings relating to whether the plan and plan transactions are in accordance with specific plan provisions. However, the audit was not designed to identify all instances where the plan and plan transactions are not in accordance with those specific plan provisions. The auditor’s opinion on the financial statements is not modified with respect to these matters. (Ref. par. .A154) [List findings]	.A154 The communication of findings relating to whether the plan and plan transactions are in accordance with specific plan provisions may describe the plan provision relating to the finding and may provide more details, or an explanation, about the finding and its effect on the financial statements, if any. When explaining the potential effect of the finding the auditor need not quantify those effects.
g. A paragraph under the heading “Purpose of the Report” that includes an appropriate alert, in a separate paragraph, that (Ref. par. .A155) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>i. Describes the purpose of the Report on Specific Plan Provisions Relating to the Financial Statements;</li> <li>ii. states that this report is an integral part of an employee benefit plan audit performed in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards; and</li> <li>iii. states that the communication is not suitable for any other purpose.</li> </ul>	.A155 Because the Report on Specific Plan Provisions Relating to the Financial Statements is an integral part of the audit engagement of ERISA Plan financial statements for the purpose of assessing the results of the engagement, this form of alert language is used.
h. The manual or printed signature of the auditor’s firm, the city and state where the auditor’s report is issued, and dated the same date as the auditor’s report on the financial statements. (Ref. par. .A156)	.A156 The auditor’s Report on Specific Plan Provisions Relating to the Financial Statements carries the same date as that of a financial statement report because the audit procedures required to be performed in paragraphs .16–.17 are completed along with the procedures performed on the financial statements.
Report on Specific Plan Provisions Relating to the Financial Statements Included in the Auditor’s Report
.125 When the Report on Specific Plan Provisions Relating to the Financial Statements is included in the auditor’s report on the financial statements, the auditor’s report should include the elements in paragraph .124 (d)-(g) in a separate section of the auditor’s report that should be subtitled “Report on Specific Plan Provisions Relating to the Financial Statements”.

Appendix—Amendments to Various Sections in Statement on Auditing Standards No. 122, Statements on Auditing Standards: Clarification and Recodification, as Amended

(Boldface italics denotes new language. Deleted text is in strikethrough)

These amendments become effect for ....

AU-C section 510, Opening Balances—Initial Audit Engagements, Including Reaudit Engagements

SCOPE OF THIS SECTION

.01 This section addresses the auditor’s responsibilities relating to opening balances in an initial audit engagement, including a reaudit engagement. In addition to financial statement amounts, opening balances include matters requiring disclosure that existed at the beginning of the period, such as contingencies and commitments. When comparative financial statements are presented, the relevant requirements and guidance for comparative financial statements in section 700, Forming an Opinion and Reporting on Financial Statements, or proposed AU-C section 703, *Forming an Opinion and Reporting on Financial Statements of Employee Benefit Plans Subject to ERISA, also apply, as applicable. Section 300, Planning an Audit, includes additional requirements and guidance regarding activities prior to starting an initial audit. Section 708, Consistency of Financial Statements, also applies with respect to the auditor’s evaluation of the consistency of accounting principles between the periods presented and covered by the auditor’s opinion. Section 210, Terms of Engagement, includes requirements and guidance with respect to communications with a predecessor auditor before accepting an initial audit engagement, including a reaudit engagement.

[No proposed amendments to paragraphs .02-.A14]

Discovery of Possible Material Misstatements in Financial Statements Reported on by a Predecessor Auditor

.A15 Section 560 provides reporting guidance to the predecessor auditor who is requested to reissue a previously issued report on financial statements of a prior period when those financial statements are to be presented on a comparative basis with audited financial statements of a subsequent period.<sup>2</sup> Section 700 and proposed AU-C section 703, as applicable, provides reporting guidance to the auditor reporting on comparative financial statements when the predecessor auditor is unable or unwilling to reissue the auditor’s report on prior period financial statements that have been restated.<sup>3</sup> (Ref: par. .12)

<sup>3</sup>Paragraph .A52 of section 700A, Forming an Opinion and Reporting on Financial Statements, and paragraph .A116 of proposed AU-C section 703, Forming an Opinion and Reporting on Financial Statements of Employee Benefit Plans Subject to ERISA.

[No further proposed amendments to section 510]

Section 700, *Forming an Opinion and Reporting on Financial Statements

[Paragraphs .01 and .02 are provided for contextual purposes only. There are no proposed amendments to these paragraphs]

SCOPE OF THIS SECTION

.01 This section addresses the auditor's responsibility to form an opinion on the financial statements. It also addresses the form and content of the auditor's report issued as a result of an audit of financial statements.

.02 This section is written in the context of a complete set of general purpose financial statements.

.03 This section is not applicable when the auditor is forming an opinion and reporting on financial statements of employee benefit plans subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA). In such circumstances, proposed AU-C section 703, Forming an Opinion and Reporting on Financial Statements of Employee Benefit Plans Subject to ERISA, applies.

[Subsequent paragraphs renumbered. No further proposed amendments to section 700]

Section 705, *Modifications to the Opinion in the Independent Auditor's Report

.01 This section addresses the auditor's responsibility to issue an appropriate report in circumstances when, in forming an opinion in accordance with section 700, Forming an Opinion and Reporting on Financial Statements, or proposed AU-C section 703, Forming an Opinion and Reporting on Financial Statements of Employee Benefit Plans Subject to ERISA, as applicable, the auditor concludes that a modification to the auditor's opinion on the financial statements is necessary.

[No proposed amendments to paragraphs .02–.16]

.17 When the auditor modifies the opinion on the financial statements, the auditor should, in addition to the specific elements required by section 700 or proposed AU-C section 703, as applicable, include a paragraph in the auditor's report that provides a description of the matter giving rise to the modification. The auditor should place this paragraph immediately before the opinion paragraph in the auditor's report and use a heading that includes "Basis for Qualified Opinion," "Basis for Adverse Opinion," or "Basis for Disclaimer of Opinion," as appropriate. (Ref: par. .A20)

[No proposed amendments to paragraphs .18–.A1]

.A2 Section 700 and proposed AU-C section 703, as applicable, requires the auditor, in order to form an opinion on the financial statements, to conclude whether reasonable assurance has been obtained about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement.<sup>4</sup> This conclusion takes into account the auditor's evaluation of uncorrected misstatements, if any, on the financial statements, in accordance with section 450, Evaluation of Misstatements Identified During the Audit.

<sup>4</sup>Paragraph .14 of section 700, Forming an Opinion and Reporting on Financial Statements or paragraph .25 of proposed AU-C section 703, Forming an Opinion and Reporting on Financial Statements of Employee Benefit Plans Subject to ERISA

[No further proposed amendments to section 705]

Section 706, *Emphasis-of-Matter Paragraphs and Other-Matter Paragraphs In the Independent Auditor's Report

[No proposed amendments to paragraphs .01–.A7]

.A8 An other-matter paragraph does not address circumstances when the auditor has other reporting responsibilities that are in addition to the auditor's responsibility under GAAS to report on the financial statements (see the "Other Reporting Responsibilities" section in section 700, Forming an Opinion and Reporting on Financial Statements or proposed AU-C section 703, Forming an Opinion and Reporting on Financial Statements of Employee Benefit Plans Subject to ERISA, as applicable) or when the auditor has been asked to perform and report on additional specified procedures or to express an opinion on specific matters.

[No proposed amendments to paragraphs .A9–.A13]

- Paragraph .13 of section 806, Reporting on Compliance With Aspects of Contractual Agreements or Regulatory Requirements in Connection With Audited Financial Statements

- Paragraph .07 of section 905, Alert That Restricts the Use of the Auditor’s Written Communication

[No further proposed amendments to section 706]

Section 800, *Special Considerations—Audits of Financial Statements Prepared in Accordance With Special Purpose Frameworks

[No proposed amendments to paragraphs .01–.13]

FORMING AN OPINION AND REPORTING CONSIDERATIONS

.14 When forming an opinion and reporting on special purpose financial statements, the auditor should apply the requirements in section 700, Forming an Opinion and Reporting on Financial Statements, or proposed AU-C section 703, Forming an Opinion and Reporting on Financial Statements of Employee Benefit Plans Subject to ERISA, as applicable. When, in forming an opinion, the auditor concludes that a modification to the auditor’s opinion on the financial statements is necessary, the auditor should apply the requirements in section 705, Modifications to the Opinion in the Independent Auditor’s Report. (Ref: par. .A16)

Description of the Applicable Financial Reporting Framework (Ref: par. .A17–.A18)

.15 Section 700 or proposed AU-C section 703, as applicable, requires the auditor to evaluate whether the financial statements adequately refer to or describe the applicable financial reporting framework.<sup>6</sup> In an audit of special purpose financial statements, the auditor should evaluate whether the financial statements are suitably titled, include a summary of significant accounting policies, and adequately describe how the special purpose framework differs from GAAP. The effects of these differences need not be quantified.

<sup>6</sup>Paragraph .18 of section 700, Forming an Opinion and Reporting on Financial Statements, or paragraph .29 of proposed AU-C section 703, Forming an Opinion and Reporting on Financial Statements of Employee Benefit Plans Subject to ERISA, as applicable.

[Paragraph .16 provided for contextual purposes only. No proposed amendments to paragraph .16]

.16 In the case of special purpose financial statements prepared in accordance with a contractual basis of accounting, the auditor should also evaluate whether the financial statements adequately describe any significant interpretations of the contract on which the financial statements are based.

Fair Presentation (Ref: par. .A19–.A23)

.17 Section 700 or proposed AU-C section 703, as applicable, requires the auditor to evaluate whether the financial statements achieve fair presentation.<sup>7</sup> In an audit of special purpose financial statements when the special purpose financial statements contain items that are the same as, or similar to, those in financial statements prepared in accordance with GAAP, the auditor should evaluate whether the financial statements include informative disclosures similar to those required by GAAP. The auditor should also evaluate whether additional disclosures, beyond those specifically required by the framework, related to matters that are not specifically identified on the face of the financial statements or other disclosures are necessary for the financial statements to achieve fair presentation.

<sup>7</sup>Paragraph .17 of section 700, or paragraph .28 of proposed AU-C section 703, Forming an Opinion and Reporting on Financial Statements of Employee Benefit Plans Subject to ERISA, as applicable.

Auditor's Report

.18 Section 700 or proposed AU-C section 703, as applicable, addresses the form and content of the auditor's report. In the case of an auditor's report on special purpose financial statements, the

- a. explanation of management's responsibility for the financial statements should also make reference to its responsibility for determining that the applicable financial reporting framework is acceptable in the circumstances, when management has a choice of financial reporting frameworks in the preparation of such financial statements.
- b. auditor's report should also describe the purpose for which the financial statements are prepared or refer to a note in the special purpose financial statements that contains that information, when the financial statements are prepared in accordance with
  - i. a regulatory or contractual basis of accounting or
  - ii. an other basis of accounting, and the auditor is required to restrict use of the auditor's report pursuant to paragraph .06a–b of section 905, Alert That Restricts the Use of the Auditor's Written Communication. (Ref: par. .A24)

[No proposed amendments to paragraphs .19–.A10]

Achieving Fair Presentation (Ref: par. .11d)

.A11 In accordance with section 700, or proposed AU-C section 703, as applicable, the auditor's evaluation of whether the financial statements achieve fair presentation in accordance with the applicable financial reporting framework requires consideration of<sup>14</sup>

- a. the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements and
- b. whether the financial statements, including the related notes, represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

Also see paragraphs .A19–.A23 of this section.

Illustration 1—An Auditor’s Report on Financial Statements for a Defined Contribution Retirement Plan Subject to ERISA

Circumstances include the following:

- Audit of a complete set of general purpose financial statements for a 401(k) plan subject to ERISA (comparative statement of net assets available for benefits)
- The financial statements are prepared in accordance with GAAP
- The Plan merged with another plan. The merger was disclosed in the notes to the financial statements and the auditor included an emphasis-of-matter paragraph in the auditor’s report.
- The Report on Specific Plan Provisions Relating to Financial Statements is included with the auditor’s report. There are no findings.

Independent Auditor’s Report

[Appropriate Addressee]

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of ABC 401(k) Plan, which comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 20X2 and 20X1, and the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefits for the year ended December 31, 20X2, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management’s Responsibility for the Financial Statements of an Employee Benefit Plan Subject to ERISA

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Management is also responsible for maintaining a current plan instrument including all plan amendments, administering the plan and determining that the plan’s transactions that are presented and disclosed in the financial statements are in conformity with the plan’s provisions, including maintaining sufficient records with respect to each of the participants, in accordance with ERISA section 107 and 209, to determine the benefits due or which may become due to such participants.

Auditor’s Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above, present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for benefits of ABC 401(k) Plan as of December 31, 20X2 and 20X1, and the changes in its net assets available for benefits for the year ended December 31, 20X2, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Emphasis of Matter Relating to Plan Merger

As discussed in Note X to the financial statements, XYZ Plan into the ABC 401(k) Plan effective December 31, 20X2. The plan's net assets and related participant information were transferred to the ABC 401(k) Plan on December 31, 20X2. Our opinion has not been modified with respect to this matter.

Other Matter Relating to the Supplementary Information Required by ERISA

Our audits were conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements as a whole. The supplemental schedules of [identify title of schedules and period covered] are presented for the purpose of additional analysis and are not a required part of the financial statements but are supplementary information required by the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974. Such information is the responsibility of the Plan's management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audits of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, performing procedures to test the completeness and accuracy of the information presented in the supplemental schedules, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America.

In forming our opinion on the supplemental schedules, we evaluated whether the supplementary information, including its form and content, is presented in conformity with the Department of Labor’s Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974.

In our opinion, the information in the accompanying schedules is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the financial statements as a whole and the form and content is presented in conformity with the Department of Labor’s Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974.

Report on Specific Plan Provisions Relating to the Financial Statements

As part of obtaining reasonable assurance about whether ABC 401(k) Plan’s financial statements are free from material misstatement, we are required to perform certain procedures to test whether the plan and plan transactions are in accordance with specific plan provisions. We performed procedures relating to participant eligibility, benefit/claim payments, participant vesting provisions, employer and employee contributions, disclosure of prohibited transactions, IRC compliance tests, participant asset allocations, use of forfeitures, allocation of account activity, and allocation of expenses for the year ended December 31, 20X2 as required by generally accepted auditing standards for audits of employee benefit plans subject to ERISA as set forth in AU-C section 703, Forming an Opinion and Reporting on Financial Statements of Employee Benefit Plans Subject to ERISA. However, these procedures were not performed for the purpose of providing an opinion on compliance with those provisions and, accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

During our audit, we did not have any findings relating to whether the plan and plan transactions are in accordance with specific plan provisions. However, the audit was not designed to identify all instances where the plan and plan transactions are not in accordance with those specific plan provisions.

Purpose of this Report

The purpose of this report on specific plan provisions relating to the financial statements is solely to describe the results of our specific considerations relating to whether the plan and plan transactions are in accordance with specific plan provisions, and not to provide an opinion on the plan’s compliance with ABC 401(k) plan’s provisions. This report is an integral part of an employee benefit plan audit performed in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Accordingly, this communication is not suitable for any other purpose.

Illustration 2— An Auditor’s Report on Financial Statements for a Defined Benefit Pension Plan Subject to ERISA

Circumstances include the following:

- Audit of a complete set of general purpose financial statements (comparative statement of net assets available for benefits and of accumulated plan benefits) for a defined benefit pension plan subject to ERISA assuming an end-of-year benefit information date
- The financial statements are prepared in accordance with GAAP
- The information regarding the actuarial present value of accumulated plan benefits and changes therein is presented in separate statements within the financial statements and comparative statements of accumulated plan benefits and a single year statement of changes in accumulated plan benefits are presented
- There are no matters disclosed in the notes to the financial statements that require an emphasis-of-matter paragraph to be included in the auditor’s report.
- The Report on Specific Plan Provisions Relating to Financial Statements is included with the auditor’s report and includes findings.

Independent Auditor’s Report

[Appropriate Addressee]

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of XYZ Pension Plan, which comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits and of accumulated plan benefits as of December 31, 20X2 and 20X1, and the related statements of changes in net assets available for benefits and of changes in accumulated plan benefits for the year ended December 31, 20X2, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management’s Responsibility for the Financial Statements of an Employee Benefit Plan Subject to ERISA

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Management is also responsible for maintaining a current plan instrument including all plan amendments, administering the plan and determining that the plan’s transactions that are presented or disclosed in the financial statements are in conformity with the plan’s provisions, including maintaining sufficient records with respect to each of the participants, in accordance with ERISA sections 107 and 209, to determine the benefits due or which may become due to such participants.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above, present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for benefits and of accumulated plan benefits of XYZ Pension Plan as of December 31, 20X2 and 20X1, and the changes in its nets assets available for benefits and of changes in accumulated plan benefits for the year ended December 31, 20X2, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Other Matter Relating to the Supplementary Information Required by ERISA

Our audits were conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements as a whole. The supplemental schedules of [identify title of schedules and period covered] are presented for the purpose of additional analysis and are not a required part of the financial statements but are supplementary information required by the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974. Such information is the responsibility of the Plan's management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audits of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, performing procedures to test the completeness and accuracy of the information presented in the supplemental schedules, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America.

In forming our opinion on the supplemental schedules, we evaluated whether the supplementary information, including its form and content, is presented in conformity with the Department of Labor’s Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974.

In our opinion, the information in the accompanying schedules is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the financial statements as a whole and the form and content is presented in conformity with the Department of Labor’s Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974.

Report on Specific Plan Provisions Relating to the Financial Statements

As part of obtaining reasonable assurance about whether XYZ Pension Plan’s financial statements are free from material misstatement, we are required to perform certain procedures to test whether the plan and plan transactions are in accordance with specific plan provisions. We performed procedures relating to participant eligibility, benefit/claim payments, participant vesting provisions, employer and employee contributions, disclosure of prohibited transactions, IRC compliance tests, participant asset allocations, use of forfeitures, allocation of account activity, and allocation of expenses for the year ended December 31, 20X2 as required by generally accepted auditing standards for audits of employee benefit plans subject to ERISA as set forth in AU-C section 703, Forming an Opinion and Reporting on Financial Statements of Employee Benefit Plans Subject to ERISA. However, these procedures were not performed for the purpose of providing an opinion on compliance with those provisions and, accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

During our audit, we noted the following findings relating to whether the plan and plan transactions are in accordance with specific plan provisions. However, the audit was not designed to identify all instances when the plan and plan transactions are not in accordance with those specific plan provisions.

- We noted instances where vesting was not calculated in accordance with the plan document which resulted in the plan not reporting the appropriate benefits.
- We noted instances where employee deferrals were not remitted timely which resulted in a prohibited transaction that was reported on Schedule H, line 4a–Schedule of Delinquent Participant Contributions.

Purpose of this Report

The purpose of this report on specific plan provisions relating to the financial statements is solely to describe the results of our specific considerations relating to whether the plan and plan transactions are in accordance with specific plan provisions, and not to provide an opinion on the plan’s compliance with XYZ Pension Plan’s provisions. This report is an integral part of an employee benefit plan audit performed in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Accordingly, this communication is not suitable for any other purpose.

Illustration 3—An Auditor’s Report on Financial Statements of a Defined Contribution Retirement Plan Subject to ERISA When Management Imposes a Limitation on the Scope of the Audit As Permitted by ERISA

Circumstances include the following:

- Management imposed a limitation on the scope of the audit, as permitted by 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the DOL’s Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA,<sup>33</sup> with respect to the certified investment information for a complete set of general purpose financial statements of a 401(k) plan. No other scope limitations were imposed and the financial statements are not materially misstated.
- The financial statements are prepared in accordance with GAAP
- There are no matters disclosed in the notes to the financial statements that require an emphasis-of-matter paragraph to be included in the auditor’s report.
- The Report on Specific Plan Provisions Relating to Financial Statements is included with the auditor’s report and includes findings.

Independent Auditor’s Report

[Appropriate Addressee]

We have performed an audit of the accompanying financial statements of XYZ 401(k) Plan, subject to the limitation on the scope of the audit imposed by management, as permitted by Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974. The financial statements comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 20X2 and 20X1, and the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefits for the year ended December 31, 20X2, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Basis for Limitation on the Scope of the Audit

As permitted by 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor’s Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, management imposed a limitation on the scope of the audit. Under the authority of section 103(a)(3)(C) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, the audit need not extend to any statement or information prepared and certified by a bank or similar institution or insurance carrier which is regulated and supervised and subject to periodic examination by a State or Federal agency, provided that the statements or information regarding assets so held are prepared and certified to by the bank or insurance carrier in accordance with 29 CFR 2520.103-5 and 29 CFR 2520.103-8.

<sup>33</sup> Although not as common, the plan administrator may limit the scope of the audit of 103-12 investment entities as permitted by ERISA. If the scope limitation imposed by management is under 29 CFR 2520.103-12 then the wording in this illustrative report may need to change to reflect the circumstances of the engagement.

We have been informed by management that a qualified institution holds the investments and executes investment transactions. Management has obtained certifications from the qualified institution as of December 31, 20X2 and 20X1, and for the year ended December 31, 20X2, stating that the investment information, described in Note X to the financial statements, is complete and accurate.

Management’s Responsibility for the Financial Statements and the Limitation on the Scope of the Audit

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Management is also responsible for determining whether a limitation on the scope of the audit is permissible in the circumstances, in accordance with the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, including evaluating whether

- the certification is prepared by a qualified institution, and
- the certified investment information is complete and accurate.

The limitation on the scope of the audit does not affect management’s responsibility for the financial statements. Management is responsible for determining whether the certified investment information is appropriately measured, presented and disclosed in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Management is also responsible for maintaining a current plan instrument including all plan amendments, administering the plan and determining that the plan’s transactions that are presented or disclosed in the financial statements are in conformity with the plan’s provisions, including maintaining sufficient records with respect to each of the participants, in accordance with sections 107 and 209 of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, to determine the benefits due or which may become due to such participants.

Auditor’s Responsibility (Including Responsibility for the Certified Investment Information)

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor’s judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity’s preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

With respect to the certified investment information that management instructed us not to audit, we did not assess the risks of material misstatement nor did we consider internal control over the certified investment information. Our procedures were limited to the following:

- (a) obtaining and reading the certification
- (b) evaluating management's assessment of whether the entity issuing the certification is a qualified institution under ERISA
- (c) comparing the certified investment information with the related information presented or disclosed in the financial statements
- (d) evaluating whether the form and content of the certified investment information presented or disclosed in the financial statements is in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America

Other than with respect to the certified investment information, our audit procedures were not limited for other amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion with the ERISA-permitted audit scope limitation. on the financial statements.

Auditor's Opinion With the ERISA-Permitted Audit Scope Limitation. on the Financial Statements

In our opinion, based on our audit and based on our use of the certification of the investment information which we were not required to audit, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for benefits of the XYZ 401(k) plan as of December 31, 20X2 and 20X1, and the changes in net assets available for benefits for the year ended December 31, 20X2, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Other Matter Relating to the Supplementary Information Required by ERISA

Our audits were conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements as a whole. The supplemental schedules of [identify title of schedules and period covered] are presented for the purpose of additional analysis and are not a required part of the financial statements but are supplementary information required by the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Security Act of 1974. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audits of the financial statements and the use of the certification of the investment information, which we were not required to audit, and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, performing procedures to test the completeness and accuracy of the information presented in the supplemental schedules, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our procedures with respect to the certified investment information included in the supplemental schedules were limited to those procedures described in the Auditor's Responsibility (Including Responsibility for the Certified Investment Information) section.

In forming our opinion on the supplemental schedules, we evaluated whether the supplementary information, including its form and content, is presented in conformity with the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974.

In our opinion, and based on our use of the certification of the investment information which we were not required to audit, the supplementary information in the accompanying schedules is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the financial statements as a whole and is in conformity with the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974.

Report on Specific Plan Provisions Relating to the Financial Statements

As part of obtaining reasonable assurance about whether ABC 401(k) Plan's financial statements are free from material misstatement, we are required to perform certain procedures to test whether the plan and plan transactions are in accordance with specific plan provisions. We performed procedures relating to participant eligibility, benefit/claim payments, participant vesting provisions, employer and employee contributions, disclosure of prohibited transactions, IRC compliance tests, participant asset allocations, use of forfeitures, allocation of account activity, and allocation of expenses for the year ended December 31, 20X2 as required by generally accepted auditing standards for audits of employee benefit plans subject to ERISA as set forth in AU-C section 703, Forming an Opinion and Reporting on Financial Statements of Employee Benefit Plans Subject to ERISA. However, these procedures were not performed for the purpose of providing an opinion on compliance with those provisions and, accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

During our audit, we noted the following findings relating to whether the plan and plan transactions are in accordance with specific plan provisions. However, the audit was not designed to identify all instances where the plan and plan transactions are not in accordance with those specific plan provisions.

- We noted instances where vesting was not calculated in accordance with the plan document, which resulted in the plan not reporting appropriate benefits.

Purpose of this Report

The purpose of this report on specific plan provisions relating to the financial statements is solely to describe the results of our specific considerations relating to whether the plan and plan transactions are in accordance with specific plan provisions, and not to provide an opinion on the plan's compliance with ABC 401(k) plan's provisions. This report is an integral part of an employee benefit plan audit performed in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Accordingly, this communication is not suitable for any other purpose.

Illustration 4—Illustrative Separate Report on Specific Plan Provisions Relating to the Financial Statements

Circumstances include the following:

- Audit of a 401(k) plan. (When management limits the scope of the audit as permitted by ERISA, the first paragraph of the report would be revised accordingly.)
- The auditor’s report on the financial statements includes an other-matter paragraph (in accordance with paragraph .41 of the proposed SAS) regarding the report on specific considerations relating to specific plan provisions that was issued separately. The following is an example of such a paragraph.

Other Matter Regarding Separate Report on Specific Plan Provisions Relating to the Financial Statements

In accordance with GAAS, we have also issued a report dated [date of report] on our testing of specific plan provisions relating to the financial statements of ABC 401(k) Plan in connection with obtaining reasonable assurance in an audit of the plan’s financial statements. The purpose of that report is to describe the results of our procedures relating to the specific plan provisions and not to provide an opinion on compliance with such plan provisions. That report is an integral part of an employee benefit plan audit performed in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards.

Independent Auditor’s Report

[Appropriate Addressee]

We have audited, the financial statements of ABC 401(k) plan in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, which comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 20X2 and 20X1, and the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefits for the year ended December 31, 20X2, and the related notes to the financial statements, and have issued our unmodified opinion thereon dated October 15, 20X3. Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements as a whole.<sup>34</sup>

<sup>34</sup> When the ERISA-permitted scope limitation is imposed, this paragraph may be replaced with the following: “We have performed an audit of the financial statements of ABC 401(k) Plan, in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, subject to the limitation on the scope of the audit imposed by management, as permitted by the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974. The financial statements comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 20X2 and 20X1, and the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefits for the year ended December 31, 20X2, and the related notes to the financial statements. We have issued our opinion with the ERISA-permitted audit scope limitation on the financial statements thereon dated October 15, 20X3. Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements as a whole.

Illustration 5—An Auditor’s Report Containing a Qualified Opinion Due to Inadequate Disclosure for a Defined Contribution Retirement Plan Subject to ERISA

Circumstances include the following:

- Audit of a complete set of general purpose financial statements for a 401(k) plan subject to ERISA (comparative statement of net assets available for benefits)
- The financial statements are prepared in accordance with GAAP
- The financial statements have omitted information from the notes to the financial statements.
- The omitted information does not affect the supplemental schedules and therefore the auditor has concluded that the opinion provided on the supplemental schedules does not need to be modified
- The Plan merged with another plan. The merger was disclosed in the notes to the financial statements and the auditor included an emphasis-of-matter paragraph in the auditor’s report.
- The Report on Specific Plan Provisions Relating to Financial Statements is included with the auditor’s report. There are no findings.

Independent Auditor’s Report

[Appropriate Addressee]

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of ABC 401(k) Plan, which comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 20X2 and 20X1, and the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefits for the year ended December 31, 20X2, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management’s Responsibility for the Financial Statements of an Employee Benefit Plan Subject to ERISA

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Management is also responsible for maintaining a current plan instrument including all plan amendments, administering the plan and determining that the plan’s transactions that are presented and disclosed in the financial statements are in conformity with the plan’s provisions, including maintaining sufficient records with respect to each of the participants, in accordance with ERISA section 107 and 209, to determine the benefits due or which may become due to such participants.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our qualified audit opinion.

Basis for Qualified Opinion

The Plan's financial statements do not disclose [describe the nature of the omitted information that is not practical to present in the auditor's report]. In our opinion, disclosure of this information is required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Qualified Opinion

In our opinion, except for the omission of the information described in the Basis for Qualified Opinion paragraph, the financial statements referred to above, present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for benefits of ABC 401(k) Plan as of December 31, 20X2 and 20X1, and the changes in its net assets available for benefits for the year ended December 31, 20X2, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Emphasis of Matter Relating to Plan Merger

As discussed in Note X to the financial statements, the Board of Directors of ABC Company merged XYZ Plan into the ABC 401(k) Plan effective December 31, 20X2. The plan's net assets and related participant information were transferred to the ABC 401(k) Plan on December 31, 20X2. Our opinion has not been modified with respect to this matter.

Other Matter Relating to the Supplementary Information Required by ERISA

Our audits were conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements as a whole. The supplemental schedules of [identify title of schedules and period covered] are presented for the purpose of additional analysis and are not a required part of the financial statements but are supplementary information required by the Department of Labor’s Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974. Such information is the responsibility of the Plan’s management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audits of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, performing procedures to test the completeness and accuracy of the information presented in the supplemental schedules, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America.

In forming our opinion on the supplemental schedules, we evaluated whether the supplementary information, including its form and content, is presented in conformity with the Department of Labor’s Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974.

In our opinion, the information in the accompanying schedules is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the financial statements as a whole and the form and content is presented in conformity with the Department of Labor’s Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974.

Report on Specific Plan Provisions Relating to the Financial Statements

As part of obtaining reasonable assurance about whether ABC 401(k) Plan’s financial statements are free from material misstatement, we are required to perform certain procedures to test whether the plan and plan transactions are in accordance with specific plan provisions. We performed procedures relating to participant eligibility, benefit/claim payments, participant vesting provisions, employer and employee contributions, disclosure of prohibited transactions, IRC compliance tests, participant asset allocations, use of forfeitures, allocation of account activity, and allocation of expenses for the year ended December 31, 20X2 as required by generally accepted auditing standards for audits of employee benefit plans subject to ERISA as set forth in AU-C section 703, Forming an Opinion and Reporting on Financial Statements of Employee Benefit Plans Subject to ERISA. However, these procedures were not performed for the purpose of providing an opinion on compliance with those provisions and, accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

During our audit, we did not have any findings relating to whether the plan and plan transactions are in accordance with specific plan provisions. However, the audit was not designed to identify all instances where the plan and plan transactions are not in accordance with those specific plan provisions.

Purpose of this Report

The purpose of this report on specific plan provisions relating to the financial statements is solely to describe the results of our specific considerations relating to whether the plan and plan transactions are in accordance with specific plan provisions, and not to provide an opinion on the plan's compliance with ABC 401(k) plan's provisions. This report is an integral part of an employee benefit plan audit performed in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Accordingly, this communication is not suitable for any other purpose.

Illustration 6— An Auditor’s Report Containing a Disclaimer of Opinion on Financial Statements for a Defined Contribution Retirement Plan Subject to ERISA

Circumstances include the following:

- Audit of a complete set of general purpose financial statements for a 401(k) plan subject to ERISA (comparative statement of net assets available for benefits)
- The financial statements are prepared in accordance with GAAP
- The auditor was unable to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence about the plans investments because the plan has not maintained sufficient accounting records and supporting documents. The possible effects of this inability to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence are deemed to be both material and pervasive to the financial statements. Accordingly, the auditor’s opinion contains a disclaimer of opinion.
- The Plan merged with another plan. The merger was disclosed in the notes to the financial statements and the auditor included an emphasis-of-matter paragraph in the auditor’s report.
- The auditor is precluded from expressing an opinion on the supplemental schedules when the auditor issues a disclaimer of opinion on the financial statements in accordance with AU-C section 725 Supplementary Information in Relation to the Financial Statements as a Whole. The auditor’s communication on the supplemental schedules has been revised accordingly.
- The Report on Specific Plan Provisions Relating to Financial Statements is included with the auditor’s report. There are no findings.

Independent Auditor’s Report

[Appropriate Addressee]

We were engaged to audit the accompanying financial statements of ABC 401(k) Plan, which comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 20X2 and 20X1, and the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefits for the year ended December 31, 20X2, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management’s Responsibility for the Financial Statements of an Employee Benefit Plan Subject to ERISA

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Management is also responsible for maintaining a current plan instrument including all plan amendments, administering the plan and determining that the plan’s transactions that are presented and disclosed in the financial statements are in conformity with the plan’s provisions, including maintaining sufficient records with respect to each of the participants, in accordance with ERISA section 107 and 209, to determine the benefits due or which may become due to such participants.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on conducting the audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Because of the matters described in the Basis for Disclaimer of Opinion paragraph, however, we were not able to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence to provide a basis for an audit opinion.

Basis for Disclaimer of Opinion

ABC 401(k) plan has not maintained sufficient accounting records and supporting documents. Accordingly, we were unable to apply auditing procedures sufficient to determine the extent to which the accompanying financial statements may have been affected by these conditions.

Disclaimer of Opinion

Because of the significance of the matter described in the Basis for Disclaimer of Opinion paragraph, we have not been able to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence to provide a basis for an audit opinion. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on these financial statements.

Emphasis of Matter Relating to Plan Merger

As discussed in Note X to the financial statements, the Board of Directors of ABC Company merged XYZ Plan into the ABC 401(k) Plan effective December 31, 20X2. The plan's net assets and related participant information were transferred to the ABC 401(k) Plan on December 31, 20X2. Our opinion has not been modified with respect to this matter.

Other Matter Relating to the Supplementary Information Required by ERISA

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements as a whole. The supplemental schedules of [identify title of schedules and period covered] are presented for the purpose of additional analysis and are not a required part of the financial statements but are supplementary information required by the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974. Because of the significance of the matters described in the Basis for Disclaimer of Opinion paragraph, we do not express an opinion on the supplemental schedules.

Report on Specific Plan Provisions Relating to the Financial Statements

As part of obtaining reasonable assurance about whether ABC 401(k) Plan's financial statements are free from material misstatement, we are required to perform certain procedures to test whether the plan and plan transactions are in accordance with specific plan provisions. We performed procedures relating to participant eligibility, benefit/claim payments, participant vesting provisions, employer and employee contributions, disclosure of prohibited transactions, IRC compliance tests, participant asset allocations, use of forfeitures, allocation of account activity, and allocation of expenses for the year ended December 31, 20X2 as required by generally accepted auditing standards for audits of employee benefit plans subject to ERISA as set forth in AU-C section 703, Forming an Opinion and Reporting on Financial Statements of Employee Benefit Plans Subject to ERISA. However, these procedures were not performed for the purpose of providing an opinion on compliance with those provisions and, accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

During our audit, we did not have any findings relating to whether the plan and plan transactions are in accordance with specific plan provisions. However, the audit was not designed to identify all instances where the plan and plan transactions are not in accordance with those specific plan provisions.

Purpose of this Report

The purpose of this report on specific plan provisions relating to the financial statements is solely to describe the results of our specific considerations relating to whether the plan and plan transactions are in accordance with specific plan provisions, and not to provide an opinion on the plan's compliance with ABC 401(k) plan's provisions. This report is an integral part of an employee benefit plan audit performed in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Accordingly, this communication is not suitable for any other purpose.

Illustration 7—An Auditor’s Report Containing a Disclaimer of Opinion, Due to the Auditor’s Inability to Obtain Sufficient Appropriate Audit Evidence Because the Plan Has Not Maintained Sufficient Accounting Records, on Financial Statements of a Defined Contribution Retirement Plan Subject to ERISA When Management Imposes a Limitation on the Scope of the Audit As Permitted by ERISA

Circumstances include the following:

- The auditor was engaged to perform an audit of a complete set of general purpose financial statements for a 401(k) plan subject to ERISA (comparative statement of net assets available for benefits), subject to the limitation on the scope of the audit, as permitted by 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the DOL’s Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.<sup>35</sup>
- The financial statements are prepared in accordance with GAAP
- The auditor was unable to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence because the plan has not maintained sufficient accounting records and supporting documents. The possible effects of this inability to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence are deemed to be both material and pervasive to the financial statements. In addition, the auditor also considers the effect of the ERISA-permitted scope limitation on the auditor’s opinion because the opinion provided in paragraph .105 of this proposed SAS is not appropriate. Accordingly, the auditor’s opinion contains a disclaimer of opinion.
- There are no matters disclosed in the notes to the financial statements that require an emphasis-of-matter paragraph to be included in the auditor’s report.
- The auditor is precluded from expressing an opinion on the supplemental schedules when the auditor issues a disclaimer of opinion on the financial statements in accordance with AU-C section 725 Supplementary Information in Relation to the Financial Statements as a Whole. The auditor’s communication on the supplemental schedules has been revised accordingly.
- The Report on Specific Plan Provisions Relating to Financial Statements is included with the auditor’s report and includes findings.

Independent Auditor’s Report

[Appropriate Addressee]

We were engaged to audit the accompanying financial statements of XYZ 401(k) Plan, which comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 20X2 and 20X1, and the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefits for the year ended December 31, 20X2, and the related notes to the financial statements.

<sup>35</sup> Although not as common, the plan administrator may limit the scope of the audit of 103-12 investment entities as permitted by ERISA. If the scope limitation imposed by management is under 29 CFR 2520.103-12 then the wording in this illustrative report may need to change to reflect the circumstances of the engagement.

Management’s Responsibility for the Financial Statements and the Limitation on the Scope of the Audit

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Management is also responsible for determining whether a limitation on the scope of the audit is permissible in the circumstances, in accordance with the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, including evaluating whether

- the certification is prepared by a qualified institution, and
- the certified investment information is complete and accurate.

The limitation on the scope of the audit does not affect management’s responsibility for the financial statements. Management is responsible for determining whether the certified investment information is appropriately measured, presented and disclosed in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Management is also responsible for maintaining a current plan instrument including all plan amendments, administering the plan and determining that the plan’s transactions that are presented or disclosed in the financial statements are in conformity with the plan’s provisions, including maintaining sufficient records with respect to each of the participants, in accordance with sections 107 and 209 of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, to determine the benefits due or which may become due to such participants.

Auditor’s Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on conducting the audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Because of the matters described in the Basis for Disclaimer of Opinion paragraphs, however, we were not able to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence to provide a basis for an audit opinion.

Basis for Disclaimer of Opinion

ABC 401(k) plan has not maintained sufficient accounting records and supporting documents. Accordingly, we were unable to apply auditing procedures sufficient to determine the extent to which the accompanying financial statements may have been affected by these conditions.

As permitted by 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor’s Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, management imposed a limitation on the scope of the audit. Under the authority of section 103(a)(3)(C) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, the audit need not extend to any statement or information prepared and certified by a bank or similar institution or insurance carrier which is regulated and supervised and subject to periodic examination by a State or Federal agency, provided that the statements or information regarding assets so held are prepared and certified to by the bank or insurance carrier in accordance with 29 CFR 2520.103-5 and 29 CFR 2520.103-8. We have been informed by management that a qualified institution holds the investments and executes investment transactions. Management has obtained certifications from the qualified institution as of December 31, 20X2 and 20X1, and for the year ended December 31, 20X2, stating that the investment information, described in Note X to the financial statements, is complete and accurate.

Disclaimer of Opinion on the Financial Statements

Because of the significance of the matters described in the Basis for Disclaimer of Opinion paragraphs, we have not been able to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence to provide a basis for an audit opinion. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on these financial statements.

Other Matter Relating to the Supplementary Information Required by ERISA

We were engaged for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements as a whole. The supplemental schedules of [identify title of schedules and period covered] are presented for the purpose of additional analysis and are not a required part of the financial statements but are supplementary information required by the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Security Act of 1974. Because of the significance of the matters described in the Basis for Disclaimer of Opinion paragraphs, we do not express an opinion on the supplemental schedules.

Report on Specific Plan Provisions Relating to the Financial Statements

As part of obtaining reasonable assurance about whether ABC 401(k) Plan's financial statements are free from material misstatement, we are required to perform certain procedures to test whether the plan and plan transactions are in accordance with specific plan provisions. We performed procedures relating to participant eligibility, benefit/claim payments, participant vesting provisions, employer and employee contributions, disclosure of prohibited transactions, IRC compliance tests, participant asset allocations, use of forfeitures, allocation of account activity, and allocation of expenses for the year ended December 31, 20X2 as required by generally accepted auditing standards for audits of employee benefit plans subject to ERISA as set forth in AU-C section 703, Forming an Opinion and Reporting on Financial Statements of Employee Benefit Plans Subject to ERISA. However, these procedures were not performed for the purpose of providing an opinion on compliance with those provisions and, accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

During our audit, we noted the following findings relating to whether the plan and plan transactions are in accordance with specific plan provisions. However, the audit was not designed to identify all instances where the plan and plan transactions are not in accordance with those specific plan provisions.

- We noted instances where vesting was not calculated in accordance with the plan document, which resulted in the plan not reporting appropriate benefits.

- We were unable perform procedures to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence about whether the employer and employee contributions were calculated in accordance with the plan document because of the matters described in the Basis for Disclaimer of Opinion paragraph in the auditor’s report on the financial statements.

Purpose of this Report

The purpose of this report on specific plan provisions relating to the financial statements is solely to describe the results of our specific considerations relating to whether the plan and plan transactions are in accordance with specific plan provisions, and not to provide an opinion on the plan’s compliance with ABC 401(k) plan’s provisions. This report is an integral part of an employee benefit plan audit performed in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Accordingly, this communication is not suitable for any other purpose.
